Art +
THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

musicians actors dancers writers

September 2006–June 2007
Art Plus invites you to meet exceptionally talented performing artists and writers as they reflect on the value of the visual arts in our world today. Programs include slide commentaries and gallery walks.

Join us along the Silk Road!
Art Plus events are designed to complement the Art Institute of Chicago’s exhibition The Silk Road and Beyond: Travel, Trade, and Transformation. Programs feature notable guests as well as exciting performers from around the world. Join us on the exhibition’s opening day, September 30, 2006, for previews of the enchanting year ahead.

All tickets go on sale September 1, 2006. Tickets for Art Plus events include admission to the Art Institute galleries. For tickets, call (312) 575-8000, purchase them at any ticket counter, or go to www.ticketmaster.com. Please refer to the event code when ordering tickets. For Art Plus information, call (312) 443-3680 during business hours.

---

Sunday Concert Series: Sounds of the Silk Road

Our Sunday concert series takes place at 2:00 p.m. in Fullerton Hall.
Members, $10; public, $15.
Enjoy all four performances and save. Members $35; public $55.
Series Event code: EAIJSUNS

Concert: Echoes of the East
Sunday, October 1, at 2:00 p.m.
Event code: EAIJ1001
Experience music as it was played in the homes of Dutch and other European traders in the 17th century amidst their luxurious porcelains, carpets, and silks from trade with the East. This concert includes performers from Ars Antigua, the Oriana Singers, Ars Musica Chicago, and Comic Intermezzo. A gallery walk follows.

Yang Wei and DaXun Zhang (Qilin)

Concert: Courtly Gestures
Sunday, December 17, at 2:00 p.m.
Event code: EAIJ1217
This concert, featuring Silk Road Ensemble members Yang Wei on pipa and DaXun Zhang on double bass, presents an astonishing repertoire of traditional and contemporary works that fuse East and West. This duo is named Qilin after a legendary Chinese creature that creates harmony through fusion. Jun, an exciting new work by composer Yao Chen, is premiered. Tomoko Kashiwagi accompanies on piano.
Betti Xiang with Midwest Young Artists
Concert: Midwest Meets East
Sunday, February 18, at 2:00 p.m.
Event code: EAIJ0218
Celebrate Chinese New Year! Betti Xiang, Silk Road Ensemble musician, hosts this art and music journey that includes a world-premiere piece by 12-year-old composer Conrad Tao. Selected Midwest Young Artists chamber ensembles will preview their summer 2007 concert tour in China. A gallery walk follows.

Chicago Children’s Choir
Concert: One World
Sunday, March 25, at 2:00 p.m.
Event code: EAIJ0325
The Chicago Children’s Choir sings music from around the world. Art commentary complements the performance. A gallery walk follows.

Master Liu and Yang Wei
Concert: Ancient Ways, Endless Innovations
Sunday, May 6, at 2:00 p.m.
Event code: EAIJ0506
Master pipa player Liu Dehai first brought the Chinese lute to Americans when he played for the Boston Symphony in 1980. Yang Wei, musician-in-residence at the Art Institute this season, studied with Liu and carries forth the brilliance of this instrument with his own unique talent. For the first time in the United States, they perform together on stage. Chinese philosophies are explored in the gallery walk that follows.

Saturday programs take place in Fullerton Hall.
Members, $10; public, $15.
Enjoy all four events and save.
Members $35; public $55.
Series Event Code: EAIJSATS

Jonathan Spence and Ann Ping Chin
Study Day: Confucius, Taoism, and Chinese Intellectuals
Saturday, October 14,
10:30 a.m.—1:00 p.m.
Event code: EAIJ1014
Yale University scholars Jonathan Spence and Ann Ping Chin discuss the Qing dynasty (1644–1911), the last of the imperial dynasties in China; the teachings of Confucius; and Chinese perceptions of the West. Silk Road Ensemble musician Betti Xiang performs on the ancient erhu.

Fayeq Oweis
Demonstration: Arabic Calligraphy
Saturday, February 10, at 11:00 a.m.
(additional programs February 8, 9)
Event code: EAIJ0210
Fayeq Oweis, the talented calligrapher and digital artist, crafts various styles of Arabic calligraphic design as he illuminates the history and contemporary use of this extraordinary art form. This staged presentation includes explanation of the importance of the Arabic word within Islamic culture.

Saturday Series:
Silk Road Progressions

Anonymous, Horse, 1st half of the 8th century. Gift of Rose M. Palmer.

Jonathan Spence

Fayeq Oweis

Fayeq Oweis

Anonymous, Horse, 1st half of the 8th century. Gift of Rose M. Palmer.

Jonathan Spence

Fayeq Oweis

Fayeq Oweis
Throughout the season, visiting artists and performers will demonstrate their art in Gallery 142 and in Fullerton Hall. Check daily schedules when you arrive at the museum or visit www.artic.edu/aic.

Selected members of Yo Yo Ma's Silk Road Ensemble, a company of over 40 musicians, will be in residency throughout our season. Mark your calendar for September 30, November 5, 2006, January 21, February 18, and April 9–15, 2007.

Watch for numerous appearances by Yang Wei, Betti Xiang, Krithika Rajagopalan, Christopher Cartmill, and Doug Brush.

Artists-in-Residence: Performances and Demonstrations

October 12–15
Betti Xiang, Silk Road Ensemble musician, soloist on the ancient two-stringed erhu.

November 2–5
Peter Sís, illustrator in residence

November 3–12
Gendun Saykal, Tibetan thangka painter

November 6–11
Monks from the Drepung Gomang Monastery, sand mandala painting

December 1–30
Yang Hui Tang, Chinese landscape painter

December 5–10
Yang Wei, Silk Road Ensemble musician, soloist on the pipa.

February 8, 9, and 10
Fayeq Oweis, Arabic calligraphy

March 6–11
Krithika Rajagopalan, Bharata Natyam dancer

April 9–15
Members of the Silk Road Ensemble appear throughout the museum daily as they explore connections among artworks, cultures, and music.

---

Banjara Singers from Rajastan

Concert: Weaving Sound

Saturday, May 12, at 6:00 p.m.

Event code: EAIJ0512

The Banjara, descended from Roma gypsies, migrated through the rugged Afghanistan mountains to settle in India. These musicians offer praise to Hindu deities, playing the four-stringed sindhi sarangi and ghungroos, or ankle bells. This performance features Ghazi Khan as lead singer.

This event is cosponsored by the Kalapriya Foundation.

---

Shozo Sato

Demonstration: The Way of Tea

Saturday, May 26, 10:30 a.m.–2:30 p.m.

Event code: EAIJ0526

Shozo Sato hosts this demonstration of chado, or Japanese tea ceremony, in which various prestigious tea schools’ styles of offering tea are presented. Participants will view elegant tea materials in the upcoming exhibition The Practice of Tea from the Edo Period (1615–1868) until Today.
Fayeq Oweis
Demonstration: Arabic Calligraphy
Thursday, February 8, at 5:00 p.m.
Friday, February 9, at 12:00 p.m

Event codes: EAIJ0208, EAIJ0209

Fayeq Oweis, the talented calligrapher and digital artist, crafts various styles of Arabic calligraphic design.

---

Mark Strand
Reading: Man and Camel
Friday, September 29, at 6:00 p.m.

Event code: EAIJ0929

Pulitzer Prize-winning poet Mark Strand introduces his latest book of poems.

This event is cosponsored by the Poetry Foundation.

---

Additional SILK ROAD Seminars and Symposia

Tickets are available by calling (312) 575-8000 or by visiting any ticket counter after September 1. All participants must have a ticket.

April 20–21
Islamic Art and Culture
Event code: EAIL0420

---

April 28
African Innovations: Trade, Islam, and the Spread of Ideas, 9th–14th centuries
Event code: EAIL0428

---

May 19
Venice: Looking toward the East
Event code: EAIL0519

---

Thursday and Friday Fare: Silk Road Selections

All Thursday and Friday events take place in Fullerton Hall.
Members, $10; public, $15.

Mark Strand
Reading: Man and Camel
Friday, September 29, at 6:00 p.m.

Event code: EAIJ0929

Pulitzer Prize-winning poet Mark Strand introduces his latest book of poems.

This event is cosponsored by the Poetry Foundation.

---

Joseph Jarman
Concert: Floating Through the Universe
Friday, December 8, at 6:00 p.m.

Event code: EAIJ1208

Joseph Jarman, renowned saxophone and clarinet soloist, is also a Shinshu Buddhist priest. Jarman travels back and forth between New York and Japan as a teacher in the practice of Zen Buddhism. Jarman and friends play his latest music including Zanzen Blues. A gallery walk follows, focusing on Buddhism’s early impact along the historic Silk Road.

---

Reading: Literature of the Silk Road
Thursday, January 18, at 6:00 p.m.

Event code: EAIJ0118

Talented actors, musicians, and art images tell the stories of the old Silk Road. Exotic Arabic odes, lyrical Chinese court poems, and tales of heroic Persian horsemen are performed to mesmerizing rhythms of tabla and evocative melodies of the erhu. A gallery walk follows.

This event is cosponsored by the Poetry Foundation.

---

Battle Scene from a Shahnama (detail), 1700–1800. Everett and Ann McNear Collection.

---

Calligraphy (detail), early 16th century. Spink and Son purchased from Samuel M. Nickerson Fund.

---

---

Composite Camel with Peri, c. 1700. Everett and Ann McNear Collection.

---

Equestrinne, Tang dynasty (618–907 CE), 2nd quarter of 8th century. Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer Collection.

---

Jar, late 16th century. Through prior gifts of Josephine P. Albright in memory of Alice Higinbothem Patterson, Mrs. Tiffany Black, John Carlson, Mrs. Kent S. Clow, Edith Farnsworth, Alfred E. Hamill, and Mrs. Charles S. Potter, and Mrs. Hunnewell in memory of Mrs. Freeman Hinkley.

---

Mark Strand
Reading: Man and Camel
Friday, September 29, at 6:00 p.m.

Event code: EAIJ0929

Pulitzer Prize-winning poet Mark Strand introduces his latest book of poems.

This event is cosponsored by the Poetry Foundation.

---

Joseph Jarman
Concert: Floating Through the Universe
Friday, December 8, at 6:00 p.m.

Event code: EAIJ1208

Joseph Jarman, renowned saxophone and clarinet soloist, is also a Shinshu Buddhist priest. Jarman travels back and forth between New York and Japan as a teacher in the practice of Zen Buddhism. Jarman and friends play his latest music including Zanzen Blues. A gallery walk follows, focusing on Buddhism’s early impact along the historic Silk Road.

---

Reading: Literature of the Silk Road
Thursday, January 18, at 6:00 p.m.

Event code: EAIJ0118

Talented actors, musicians, and art images tell the stories of the old Silk Road. Exotic Arabic odes, lyrical Chinese court poems, and tales of heroic Persian horsemen are performed to mesmerizing rhythms of tabla and evocative melodies of the erhu. A gallery walk follows.

This event is cosponsored by the Poetry Foundation.

---

Battle Scene from a Shahnama (detail), 1700–1800. Everett and Ann McNear Collection.

---

Calligraphy (detail), early 16th century. Spink and Son purchased from Samuel M. Nickerson Fund.

---

---

Composite Camel with Peri, c. 1700. Everett and Ann McNear Collection.

---

Equestrinne, Tang dynasty (618–907 CE), 2nd quarter of 8th century. Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer Collection.

---

Jar, late 16th century. Through prior gifts of Josephine P. Albright in memory of Alice Higinbothem Patterson, Mrs. Tiffany Black, John Carlson, Mrs. Kent S. Clow, Edith Farnsworth, Alfred E. Hamill, and Mrs. Charles S. Potter, and Mrs. Hunnewell in memory of Mrs. Freeman Hinkley.