The Textile Society is proud to support the Department of Textiles of the Art Institute of Chicago, home to one of the most comprehensive international textile collections in the world. The museum’s holdings include outstanding examples of textiles and techniques spanning 20 centuries from 100 A.D. to the present.

Since its founding in 1978, the society has worked to further the appreciation, collection, and preservation of textiles. Society funding has gone to purchase more than 70 works for the Department of Textiles, maintain its outstanding collection, and support its conservation projects, publications, exhibitions, and events.

We invite you to join the Textile Society, a group devoted to the collection, preservation, and connoisseurship of textiles.
