By
ALBERT STERNER

THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO.
JANUARY 5 to JANUARY 24, 1909
ALBERT STERNER was born in London, England, of American parents, and received some early art instruction in King Edward's School in Birmingham. While a lad he came to America, and attended the Art Institute of Chicago in 1881-2-3. He became an illustrator for "Life" and "Harper," and later studied painting in Germany, and in France with Boulanger, Lefebvre, and Gérôme. He has exhibited and received medals and prizes in the Paris Salons, the Expositions in Paris, the Pan American Exposition, etc. He has done much serious illustrative work for the Century, Harper's, and Scribner's. Recently he has found a successful field in portraiture. Present address, Maryholme, Newport, R. I.
