JANE PETERSON

THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO
DECEMBER 6 TO DECEMBER 27, 1910

JANE PETERSON, a native of Elgin, Illinois, received her early art education at Pratt Institute, Brooklyn; and continued her studies with Snell, Birge Harrison and Arthur Dow.

In Europe she was a pupil of Frank Brangwyn, London; Cottet, Blanche, and Castelucho, Paris; and Sorolla, Madrid.

She has exhibited for some years in the Art Exhibitions in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and the Société des Artistes Français, Paris; and had special exhibitions at the St. Botolph Club, Boston; Knoedler's, New York; and Bendann's, Baltimore.

Miss Peterson is a member of the New York Water Color Club, and the Woman's Art Club of New York. She has just returned from a two years' sketching trip in Tunis, Algeria, England, Holland, France, Spain and Italy.

Her present address is Miss Jane Peterson, Elgin, Ill.
