PARIS
RETROSPECTIVE COLLECTION OF FRENCH ART, 1870-1910, AT THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO, FROM JANUARY 12 TO FEBRUARY 18, 1917

LENT BY THE LUXEMBOURG MUSEUM PARIS
EPOCHS in the development of Art, like those in other fields of civilization, are often marked both at their beginnings and at their conclusions by great international upheavals. It is true that such art epochs are evolved; they are not created in a moment. Nevertheless, great conflicts of intellects or of arms often come as great winds and kindle the accumulated heat of new art impulses into visible flame.

For this reason the present is the moment at which a retrospective exhibition of French art, covering the period from 1870 to the last decade, is of great interest. It is an exhibition of a complete chapter of art history.

By the special permission of the Government of the Republic of France, and through the cooperation of the French Ambassador and the Director of the Luxembourg Museum, we are enabled to place before the Chicago public this important collection of works.
