MARCH 25 TO MAY 1, 1918
CHICAGO SOCIETY OF ETCHERS

OFFICERS
Otto J. Schneider, President
Thomas E. Tallmadge, Vice-President
Bertha E. Jacobs, Secretary and Treasurer

JURY OF SELECTION
Gustav F. Gortisch, St. Louis
Katharine Merrill, New York
Thomas E. Tallmadge, Chicago
Louis O. Griffith, Chicago
Lee Stokes, Chicago
THE Chicago Society of Etchers was organized in January, 1910, with twenty members, and at that time was the only organized body of etchers in the United States. As its work became known, the membership grew until it is now international in scope, some of its hundred and nineteen active members being in Italy, France, Sweden, Germany, England, Canada and Japan.

Its ability to maintain travelling exhibitions throughout the country, in addition to the one large collection shown in the Art Institute each year, is mainly due to the support of associate members, numbering two hundred and fifteen. These members are scattered over the United States and abroad.

Each year the Society issues a publication for its associate members, treating of some phase of etching, which includes a signed etching made by one of its active members for this purpose, and not otherwise available.

The publication for 1917 is an etching, 8 by 11 inches, by J. C. Vonderau of New York, entitled "Old Town Bridge Tower, Prague," accompanied by two presentation pages printed by Dard Hunter, on his hand-made paper, and in the type designed by him.

Ten per cent. of associate dues provides a fund with which the Society purchases etchings from the annual exhibition and presents to the Art Institute for its permanent collection of prints. This fund is augmented by voluntary contributions from members, or societies, desiring to further the interest in etching.
The committee to select the etchings from the present exhibition is as follows:

George S. Dunham,
Thomas E. Tallmadge,
Theodore J. Keane,
Kathryn W. McGovern,
Frederick L. Norcross

The Society pays no salaries, and has no revenue aside from the annual dues of active and associate members. No commissions are taken for the sale of etchings except the minimum one of ten per cent. required by museums where exhibitions are held.

Of particular interest, in connection with this exhibition, is the case of materials, tools and plates illustrating the process of etching, which may be found in the Print Department, Room 45.

For this exhibition 624 etchings were submitted, out of which 314 were accepted by the jury.

For information regarding exhibits for sale, apply to Miss Willard at desk. Duplicate proofs may be ordered and will be supplied when available.

All payments for exhibits purchased must be made to the Secretary of the Art Institute.
