THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The Museum building upon the Lake Front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from 9 to 5, Sundays from 1 to 5. Admission is free to members and their families at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

The Art School, in the same building, includes departments of Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Illustration, Decorative Designing, Normal Instruction, and Architecture.

All friends of the Art Institute are invited to become members. Annual Members pay a fee of ten dollars a year. Life Members pay one hundred dollars and are thenceforth exempt from dues. Governing Members pay one hundred dollars upon election and twenty-five dollars a year thereafter. Upon the payment of four hundred dollars Governing Members become Governing Life Members and are thenceforth exempt from dues. All receipts from life memberships are invested and the income only expended.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by the Art Institute, and to the use of the Ryerson reference library upon art.

CHICAGO, JUNE 7, 1910.

To the Governing Members of the Art Institute of Chicago:

During the past year, as in previous years, the pressure of opportunity has impelled us to the extension of the buildings of both museum and school, and to the constant enlargement of our field of activity. The opportunities appear boundless, if we can find the means of responding to them.

Very important building improvements have been completed in the museum proper, in the school, and in the external adjuncts of the building.

The new galleries of the east wing, built by the subscription of James A. Patten and others, were opened in part (Rooms 50-54) upon the occasion of the Annual Autumn Exhibition, October 19, 1909, and the remainder (Rooms 46-48) at the time of the Annual Chicago Exhibition, January 4, 1910. These galleries, nine in number, occupy a space 208 x 45 feet, and increase our sky-lighted hanging space more than one-half. One of the new Print Rooms on the third floor (Room 59) was opened May 18, and the other (Room 58) awaits the completion of the new passenger elevator, which opens into it.

The sky-lighted school rooms have been extended, and eleven fine studios, varying in dimensions from 38 x 32 to 28 x 24 feet, have been added to them.

Another important improvement is the construction of the architectural terrace, which was a part of the original plan of the building, and which is now completed. This terrace constitutes a sort of pedestal of the building, and consists of a cut-stone wall, surmounted by a stone balustrade, surrounding the building on the south, west and north sides, at a distance of 30 or 40 feet. It is shown in the cut of the building which forms the frontispiece of this report. As an architectural feature it contributes greatly to the dignity of the building. It is the intention to put vases with plants upon the balustrade, and perhaps Venetian flags and flag-poles in the bastions at the ends of the building. Space is left in the south architectural terrace for the Ferguson Fountain of the Great Lakes, for which the commission has been given to Mr. Lorado Taft, the sculptor. The South Park Commissioners are arranging Grant Park on the north and south in relation to our building thus completed. The cost of the terrace and the extension of the school rooms has been about $75,000.

During the year Michigan Avenue has been widened to 130 feet, and a sidewalk 25 feet wide has been constructed on the east side of it. This has necessitated the partial reconstruction of our front steps, and the moving back about 12 feet of the bronze lions.
A passenger elevator is in course of construction in the Art Institute building, and is expected to be in regular use by the end of the summer. It touches at four floors, the basement or ground floor, the main floor, the second floor, and the print-room or third floor. On the main floor and basement the entrance is in Blackstone Hall, on the second floor in the east corridor, on the third floor in the north print-room. Its position is shown in the floor plans.

The construction of the monumental staircase and dome, the introduction of marble finish, mosaic or cement floors, steel-framed sky-lights, etc., in those parts of the building not yet so furnished, together with some external sculpture, remain to be completed. Notwithstanding the additions of the last year, pressure for extension is still felt and more space must be provided at no distant date.

With regard to membership, there has been a large increase in the number of life members, but a decrease in the number of annual members. The record at present stands:

The governing membership is limited to 200, in whom are vested the property and government of the institution.

During the past year three governing members have died, as follows:

Ransom R. Cable, H. H. Porter, Thomas Murdock.

Two new governing members have been elected and have qualified, Stanley Field, Wallace L. De Wolf, and there are now 187 governing members.

The business accounts of the Art Institute are kept under two heads, the museum and the school.

The receipts applicable to operating expenses of the museum, derived from the South Park tax, door fees, catalogue sales, memberships, and sundry other sources, have amounted to $119,897.53, while the operating expenses (including the Ryerson Library and Fullerton Memorial Hall) have been $103,868.16, a surplus of $16,029.37.

In the school department, the receipts, from tuition fees, locker fees, matriculation fees and sundry sources, have been $64,320.64, while the expenditure, for salaries, models, heat, light, janitor service, accessions, etc., have been $75,377.03, a deficit of $11,056.39.

The income from endowment, much of which is restricted, has been $19,048.22, and $19,122.44 have been expended for paintings for the galleries, books for the library, scholarships, prizes, and the Scammon lectures, leaving a deficit of $74.22.

Upon June 1, 1909, the invested funds were, $346,100

During the last fiscal year, they have been increased by the following receipts:

So that the present amount of invested funds is 404,700

The indebtedness of the Art Institute June 1, 1909, was 140,000

This has been reduced by receipts from the sale of real estate bequeathed by Catherine M. White 7,200

And by a payment from the general funds of 5,000

And by a gift of Charles Deering, account Greco Ptg. 5,000

$122,800

And increased by loans, account Meryon Etchings and other acquisitions 20,650

So that the total liabilities now are $143,450

The increase in invested funds together with the reduction of the debt from general funds gives a net gain of 63,600
The Art Institute also holds real estate in Evanston and Chicago, valued at $101,195, constituting the residue of the Catherine M. White estate. A list of the endowment Funds will be found in the Treasurer's report, page 31.

The proceeds of memberships year by year represents the interest on more than a million dollars, so that if we should be offered a gift of a million dollars upon condition of relinquishing our memberships, we could not afford, upon purely financial grounds, to accept it, to say nothing of the inestimable value of the personal friendship and support of the members. Our books show the aggregate proceeds from memberships during the thirty-one years of our history to have been nearly $700,000. (exactly $698,524.54). It is safe to say that the institution could not have existed without this source of income. The Life Membership Fund, founded in 1897, now amounts to $77,200, and is the largest single fund we have.

The total number of visitors to the galleries has been 546,775. Counting students once a day the attendance has been 668,555. The whole number of students in the school has been 2,637. The number of visitors to the library has been 66,417. (For details, see Report of the Director).

The most valuable accessions to the collections during the year have been the following:

Wedgwood Vases, Campagna and Pegasus forms, etc. Presented by James Viles.

Marble Bust, Josef M. Korbel, "Miss W. G." Presented by Mrs. Josef Korbel.

70 Pieces of Mummy Cloth, and other textiles. Presented by Martin A. Ryerson.

Oil Painting, Paul Dougherty, "The Blue Gale." Purchased.

Oil Painting, Joseph Lindon Smith, "A Sacrificial Bull, from the Forum." Purchased.

Oil Painting, Mary Cassatt, "The Toilet." Purchased.

Five Plaster Groups from the Columbian Exposition, by French, Potter, Martiny and Kemeys. Presented by the Field Museum of Natural History.

Valuable Architectural Drawings. Presented by various architects to the School of Architecture.

The remarkable acquisitions of Etchings and Prints are described on page ?

Five Hundred Dollars. To be used as a Foreign Traveling Scholarship, and to be given to a young woman resident in Chicago making the best record in the Art School during the year 1909-10. Presented by the Tuesday Art and Travel Club of Chicago.

Two Thousand Dollars. For the purchase of books needed by the library. Presented by Mr. Martin A. Ryerson.
One Hundred Dollars. For a scholarship for 1909-10. Presented by the Arché Club.

Twenty-five Hundred Dollars. For a permanent scholarship for a young woman, to be called the "Dearborn Seminary Scholarship." Presented by the Dearborn Seminary Alumnae Association.

Mrs. Lily G. Brand of Milwaukee has continued the Frederick Magnus Brand prizes for composition.

Mrs. Augusta Mannheimer, who for several years had been an annual member of the Art Institute, died June 5, 1909, in Chicago. In her will is the following bequest: "I give and bequeath to the Art Institute of Chicago, Chicago, Ill., the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2000.00) to be devoted by the Trustees of said Institute to the purpose of founding a scholarship or to creating a prize fund, or to whatever other art or educational purpose they in their discretion deem prudent." On November 8, 1909, the Executors of Mrs. Mannheimer's will paid to the Art Institute the legacy of $2000.00 in full.

Early in January, 1910, the Art Institute received a valuable gift from Mr. Samuel P. Avery, who has been for many years well known in art circles in New York, and is now living in Hartford, Conn. Mr. Avery presented to the Art Institute Ten Thousand Dollars in money, which is to be kept as a permanent fund, the income from which is to be used in the purchase of pictures or other art objects for the permanent collection. The gift was entirely unexpected to the Trustees and Officers of the Art Institute, and is greatly valued as a manifestation of confidence from outside of Chicago.
The last report contained an account of the Norman Wait Harris medals and prizes established by Mr. N. W. Harris.

Another medal and prize are now announced. Mrs. Potter Palmer has established a Gold Medal carrying with it a prize of One Thousand Dollars, to be called the Potter Palmer Gold Medal, to be conferred at the Annual Exhibition of American Paintings and Sculpture for the best work of art by a living American artist.

There is no limitation as between paintings and sculpture, no limitation as to subject, and no limitation as to the time in which the work may be executed. Such an award combines the advantages of the honorary medal and of the money prize. Mrs. Palmer will endow the medal and the prize, and make them permanent. Honors of this importance and dignity will do much to add to the success of the annual exhibitions.

This gift is in a manner a memorial to Mrs. Palmer's husband, the late Potter Palmer. In the old days of the Interstate Industrial Exposition, about 1889-90, Mr. Palmer gave a prize of $500 for several successive years, in the art department, for the best American picture in the annual exhibition, then the most important art event of the year in Chicago.

No part of the Art Institute has grown into importance more rapidly than the department of prints. The Stickney Collection of Engravings, numbering about 450 sheets, was presented by Mrs. Stickney in 1887, and has always been kept in a separate case in the library, accessible to visitors. With many engravings on steel and copper, it includes a few fine etchings by Rembrandt, Whistler and others. Scarcely any additional prints were acquired until October 1908, when a small collection of 83 prints, belonging to Mr. Fair, was presented, and the Joseph Brooks Fair Fund was established, yielding for the present about $900 a year, and ultimately $2,000 a year, for the acquisition of etchings and mezzotints. From this fund there have thus far been purchased 105 etchings by Joseph Pennell, and 20 etchings by Herman A. Webster. Mr. Clarence Buckingham has presented 50 fine prints of Piranesi. Mr. Wallace L. DeWolf has presented 25 fine proofs of Haden.

But the most important acquisition is the remarkable collection of Meryon's Etchings gathered by Mr. Howard Mansfield of New York through many years, and purchased for the Art Institute from the Stickney Bequest. The purchase price, $32,000, was advanced by three friends of the Art Institute, to be repaid from the income of the Stickney Fund. This comprehensive and carefully selected series is nearly a complete collection of Meryon's work. It includes brilliant proofs of the architectural subjects (several states of the plates); a complete showing of the minor works, designs, rebus drawings, portraits, animals, etc., and a considerable number of drawings and studies; 154 sheets in all. The Meryon collection is now exhibited in the new south Print Room (No. 59, third floor) a skylighted gallery, 80 x 12 feet, reached by the elevator. Much attention has been given to installation. The walls are a warm gray, somewhat broken or mottled. The prints are framed separately in plain frames of natural sweet-gum wood. The Pennell, Haden and Webster Etchings are ready for exhibition, and will be put in place as soon as the north Print Room is ready for them.

Another department, yet in its infancy, that of ceramics, has received an impulse during the last year through the gifts of Mr. James Viles. In June, 1909, Mr. Viles presented a remarkably fine example of Wedgwood ware, a large vase of the Campagna or Borghese form, and in January, 1910, the same liberal donor presented two Homeric or Pegasus vases, together with two elaborately decorated jasper pedestals of the same ware, and some other examples of porcelain. This important nucleus of a collection of Wedgwood is at present enriched by the loan by Mr. R. T. Crane, Jr., of a copy or the Portland vase and three other vases.

The use of Fullerton Hall for Saturday evenings during the season of 1909-10 was granted to Mr. Donald Robertson for the production of standard plays. Arrangements were made for reserving seats, and the hall was filled for thirty performances chiefly by the annual members. On four occasions, when special mid-week performances were given, students were admitted. The plays produced were nearly all classics, including "Tartuffe" by Molière, "The Mayor of Zalamaya" by Calderon, "The Critic" by Sheridan, and "A Marriage" by Bjornson. Near the end of the season Mr. Robertson was invited to the New Theatre,
New York, to play the leading role in the production of "Beethoven" by René Fanchois.

It is not the intention to continue the plays in Fullerton Memorial Hall next season.

A project which has been occasionally discussed in the art museums of different cities, is undertaken for the first time by the Art Institute. This is the appropriation of a gallery to the continuous exhibition of works of resident artists. It is recognized that the visitor of a public museum may reasonably expect to find in it an adequate representation of the art of the city or locality in which it is situated. One of the fine new galleries, Room 48, has been devoted to this purpose, and is now creditably filled by the works of artists of Chicago and vicinity, each artist represented by only one work.

A movement closely connected with the Art Institute, has lately been undertaken in Chicago. An organization has been formed called the Friends of American Art, for the sole purpose of establishing a fund for the purchase of American works of art for the collection of the Art Institute.

The Friends of American Art sign a pledge of intention to give $1,000 each, in installments of $200 each year, as follows: "As a Friend of American Art I hereby declare my intention of contributing annually for five years, beginning with 1910, Two Hundred Dollars toward the purchase and presentation to the Art Institute of Chicago for permanent exhibition, of selected works by the best American Artists, reserving the right to pay in full at any time."
This is simply a declaration of intention and shall not be construed as a contract."

The precise form of organization is not yet fully determined. The plan, promoted as it is by well-known patrons of art and citizens of the highest public spirit, has met with immediate favor, and there are already more than one hundred and twenty-five subscribers, insuring the sum of one-hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars to be expended within the next five years. The most sanguine promoters hope for $150,000, or even $200,000.

It is easy to see that the expenditure of $30,000 a year on American art will in a few years provide an adequate collection, and will meanwhile form a patronage very favorable to the artists. Nothing has been determined respecting the manner of expenditure, but it is presumed that purchases will be made from the Annual Exhibition of American Paintings and Sculpture, and the prospect of such purchases will make it much easier to secure the works of eminent artists, and to raise the standard of that exhibition.

In closing we mark with much satisfaction the growing pride and confidence of our fellow citizens in the Art Institute. Beginning its collections scarcely twenty-five years ago, it has taken its place in the very small list of important art museums in America. The collections are not large compared with those of some European museums, but we believe it would be hard to find in Europe or America a series of exhibition rooms more agreeable or more suitable to their purposes, or a collection more free from unworthy elements. We appeal with confidence to the public of Chicago for the increasing support that we shall need.

Report of the Treasurer

June 1, 1909, to May 31, 1910

The Northern Trust Company under the will of Benjamin F. Ferguson, deceased, is also trustee of the B. F. Ferguson Monument Fund, amounting to $1,062,458.78, the income of which is paid regularly to The Art Institute of Chicago for the erection and maintenance of enduring statuary and monuments in the parks or in other public places within the city of Chicago, commemorating worthy men or women of America or important events in American history. Income amounting to $72,070.21 is on hand from this fund, of which $70,000.00 is temporarily invested in bonds and notes which are in the custody of the Northern Trust Company.

Respectfully submitted,

ERNEST A. HAMILL, Treasurer.

Examined and found correct,

NEWTON H. CARPENTER, Secretary.
WILLIAM A. ANGELL, Auditor.

We have audited the Cash Records of The ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO for the year from June 1, 1909, to May 31, 1910, and hereby certify that the Exhibits, as above shown in the Treasurer’s Report, are correct according to the books.

Vouchers, properly approved by the Secretary and the Auditor of the Art Institute, were presented for all Disbursements.

We compared the "Balances" on the Cash Book with the Bank "Statements" under date of May 31, 1910, and found same to be correct.

Respectfully submitted,

SAFEGUARD ACCOUNT COMPANY.
Maurice S. Kuhns, Secretary,
Certified Public Accountant.

June 1, 1910.
Report of the Director

CHICAGO, June 9, 1910.

To the Board of Trustees of the Art Institute of Chicago:

The changes in installation of the collections during the last year, excepting in the department of textiles, have been incidental to the extension of the galleries. With the addition of eleven sky-lighted galleries we expected at least for a year or two to have abundant space, but the galleries have immediately become filled, and a few valuable pictures are at this moment retired for want of hanging space. It is true that we hang pictures much more luxuriously than formerly, that is, that we give them more space; and this practice we hope to continue. We have long devoted five or six galleries to passing exhibitions. Four of the new galleries and one of the old ones are now devoted to this purpose. The absorption of the eleven new galleries will be explained by an enumeration of the new collections now occupying the galleries:

Room 16  Commercial Club Plans of Chicago.

" 46  Thayer Collection of Japanese objects.

" 47a  Paintings of Chicago Artists; Municipal Art League.

" 48  Paintings of Chicago Artists; Continuous Exhibition.

" 58  Howard Mansfield Collection of Meryon Etchings.

" 26  Collection of Mrs. Potter Palmer—Various Schools.

" 27  Collection of Mrs. Potter Palmer—French Impressionists, etc.

" 28  Collection of Charles L. Hutchinson.

37
Room 47 is occupied by the fine Rosenbaum Collection of Ivories, which was formerly inadequately exhibited with other collections.

Room 52a, one of the smaller new galleries, has been appropriated to the use of the Trustees and the Art Committee, for meetings and the inspection of pictures.

Room 31 is occupied by the Collection of Cyrus H. McCormick.

Room 57, the north Print Room, is not yet occupied, on account of building operations connected with the new elevator.

The large "Assumption of the Virgin" by El Greco has been removed from the Antiquarian Room to the south wall of Room 30. It is accompanied by a large work of Tiepolo, "St. Helen presenting her son, the Emperor Constantine, in Heaven," lent by Mr. Albert S. Ludlow of Waukesha, Wis., and some smaller works of old masters; and the remainder of the room is occupied by large paintings of modern artists. The galleries devoted to public exhibitions now number 48, and the manner in which they are occupied is shown in the "Designation of Galleries" accompanying the plans at the beginning of this report.

One of the most important exhibitions of the year was the Memorial Exhibition of the Works of Augustus Saint-Gaudens, which opened August 3 and closed November 10. This collection of casts of one hundred and fifteen important sculptured works, together with cameos, medals, plques, coins and photographs, had been exhibited at the Metropolitan museum in New York, the Corcoran Gallery in Washington, and the Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh, and was subsequently exhibited at the John Herron Art Institute at Indianapolis. It formed perhaps the most important gathering of works by an American artist ever shown. Most of the sky-lighted galleries of the South Wing were given up to the exhibition. The installation was supervised by Mrs. Saint-Gaudens and Mr. Glenn Brown, the architect, of Washington, D. C., and was most careful and satisfactory. White wall coverings and potted evergreen trees were effectively used, the portrait plaques and medals were shown against warm brown woodwork, the small pieces judiciously placed in booths, etc. The exhibition gave an opportunity for the study and enjoyment of the life-work of this most eminent American sculptor, and at the same time afforded an expression of the high regard in which he is held by all who have at heart the dignity of American artistic achievement.

The usual series of exhibitions has been held through the year: The following is a complete list:

Exhibitions of 1909-1910

The Twenty-first Annual Exhibition of Water Colors, Pastels, and Miniatures, which was in progress at the time of the last report, closed June 13, 1909. (22) From March 7 to March 27 a Loan Exhibition of Portraits for the benefit of the Passavant Memorial Hospital was held in Galleries 25, 26, 50, 51, 52, 52a, 53. 172 portraits were exhibited.

(23) From March 8 to March 27 the Fifteenth Annual Exhibition of the Art Students' League of Chicago was held in Galleries 27 and 28. 179 works were exhibited. 1 picture was sold for $20.00.

(24) From April 5 to May 1 the Twenty-Third Annual Exhibition of the Chicago Architectural Club was held in Galleries 25, 50, 51, 52, 52a, 53. 685 works were exhibited.

(25) During the same period a Special Exhibition of 29 paintings by George Gardner Symons was held in Galleries 26 and 27. 9 pictures were sold for $5300.

(26) From May 10 to June 8 the Twenty-Second Annual Exhibition of Water Colors, Pastels and Miniatures, by American artists, was installed in Galleries 25, 50, 51, 52 and 53. The works are 454 in number and are still in place.
During the year there have been several exhibitions apart from the regular series, of which the most important were, the Commercial Club plan for beautifying Chicago, which opened July 8 in Gallery 16; the Continuous Exhibition of Works by Chicago Artists, which opened February 8 in Gallery 48; the exhibition of 101 pictures from March 8 to April 6 by the Public School Art Society; the Howard Mansfield collection of Etchings by Charles Meryon, which opened May 10 to continue indefinitely in the South Print Gallery; the collection of etchings by various artists, lent by C. J. Blair, which was held in Gallery 56.

The drawings, plans and perspectives showing the scheme for the development of Chicago, prepared under the direction of Daniel H. Burnham, by E. H. Bennett, F. Janin, Jules Guerin and others, for the Chicago Commercial Club, were placed upon exhibition early in July, 1909, in Room 16, and still remain. The exhibition has been twice interrupted, in January when the works of Charles F. McKim were exhibited, and in October, November and December when the Commercial Club collection went to Boston. For the better showing of this exhibit, the room was completely rearranged, the lighting system altered, the walls re-proportioned, and elaborate preparations made that the work might appear under the most favorable conditions. The monumental design for “Chicago Beautiful” is presented by means of numerous maps, showing the alterations proposed for the street and boulevard systems, and the treatment of the lake front and the various parks; by plans and elevations of proposed public buildings and groups of buildings; and finally by large pictorial renderings of the more notable effects. The Commercial Club has published a comprehensive volume descriptive of the scheme.

During the year there have been an unusual number of exhibitions of individual artists. Of these, five were of Chicago artists: Frederick F. Fursman, Cadurcis P. Ream, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Cameron (jointly), Miss A. Loo Matthews, and George Gardner Symons; and seven artists from elsewhere: George Haushalter, Alonzo St. George Huntington, Augustus Saint-Gaudens, Frank Reaugh and Charles P. Bock (jointly), Alfred East, Charles F. McKim and Joseph Lindon Smith. There was also an exhibition of a group of five New York illustrators.

During March, 1910, the use of the galleries devoted to passing exhibitions (Rooms 50-53 and 25-26) was granted to the Auxiliary Board and the Woman's Aid Society of the Passavant Memorial Hospital for a Loan Exhibition of Portraits for the benefit of the hospital. This exhibition proved to be one of the greatest interest, and included works of most of the important portrait painters of the United States and many foreign artists of high rank. The place of honor in the center gallery was given to the portrait of President Taft by Sorolla, and there were characteristic works by Zorn, Mucha, Sargent, Thayer, Chase, Alexander, Wiles, Henri, Ferraris, and among the Chicago men by Clarkson, Betts and Parker. There was also a room of old portraits, Dutch, English and American.

In the Annual Exhibition of American Paintings the Norman Wait Harris Silver Medal, carrying with it a prize of $500, was awarded to Frank W. Benson for a picture entitled "Girl playing Solitaire." The Norman Wait Harris Bronze Medal, carrying with it a prize of $300, was awarded to Edward W. Redfield for a picture entitled "The White House." The Martin B. Cahn Prize of $100 was awarded to Ralph Clarkson for a portrait of Lorado Taft. In the exhibition of Chicago Artists the Municipal Art League purchased for its permanent collection a painting, "The Riva," by Oliver Dennett Grover. The medal of the Chicago Society of Artists was awarded to Wellington J. Reynolds for a group of portraits and other works. Prizes were also awarded to Josef M. Kobbel, Bertha M. Dressler, Benjamin D. Cable, Gilbert Riswold and Walter M. Clute. In the exhibition of the Society of Western Artists the Fine Arts Building Prize was awarded to T. C. Steele of Indianapolis for a group of landscapes.

Course on Architecture

Monday afternoons at four o’clock, October 25; November 1, 8, 15, 22, 29; December 6, 13, 1909; January 3, 10, 17, 24, 31; February 7, 14, 21, 28; March 7, 1910. Eighteen lectures upon “The History of Architecture from the Early Christian to the close of the Gothic period,” by William A. Otis, architect. Stereopticon.

The address at the end of the school year, June 18, 1909, was delivered by Halsey C. Ives upon “Art a Factor in the Material Development of a People.”

The Scammon Lectures, postponed from last year, were delivered in April by Mr. Will H. Low, and will be published under the title “Gleanings from the Field of Art; Experiences along the Way.” These lectures were aimed especially to interest students, in accord with the wishes of the donor, and were fully attended.

The Scammon Lectures of 1907, on “Some Nineteenth Century Artists,” by Professor William Angus Knight, have been handsomely printed for the Art Institute by the Alderbrink Press.

There have been 283 audiences in Fullerton Memorial Hall from June 1, 1909, to June 1, 1910, as follows:
Lectures, open to members and students - - - 68
Musicales, open to members and students - - - 6
School lectures* - - - - - - 78
Lectures and meetings of other societies - - - - 100

The aggregate attendance was 72,922.

The galleries have been open to visitors every day from June 1, 1909, to June 1, 1910, 202 pay days and 163 free days.

The attendance of visitors to the Museum has been as follows:

From June 1, 1909, to June 1, 1910
Number of visitors, paid admissions - - - 28,240
Number of visitors, on free days - - - 484,153
Number of visitors, admitted free on membership tickets on other days - - - - - - 34,202
Number of students, estimated by counting each student once a day during his term of attendance - - 121,780

668,555

Average number of visitors on Wednesdays, free all day 2,628
Average number of visitors on Saturdays, free all day 3,635
Average number of visitors on Sundays, open 1 to 5, free 2,606
Average number of paying visitors on other days 141
Largest attendance in one day (Monday, Sept. 6, 1909)
  Labor Day - - - - - - 8,324
Smallest attendance in one day (Monday, May 2, 1910). Rain all day - - - - - - 53

* These are in addition to the numerous class lectures held in the class lecture room.
The total attendance of visitors during the year has been 546,775, a decrease of 11,777; including students, total attendance, 668,555.

The attendance of visitors to the Ryerson Library has been 66,517.

The publications of the year have been as follows:

Bulletins of the Art Institute, July, 1909; October, 1909; January, 1910; April, 1910.

Catalogues of the Exhibitions of the Atlan Ceramic Club, of the American Photographic Salon, of the Loan Exhibition of Portraits for the Passavant Memorial Hospital, of the Sixteenth Annual Exhibition of the Art Students' League, of the Chicago Architectural Club, have been issued by the respective societies, as well as numerous notices, circulars and statements of the Art Institute.

A new edition of the general catalogue of the collections is in course of preparation by Miss Lucy C. Driscoll.

In October, 1909, Dr. Paul Schulze, Director of the Royal Textile Museum at Crefeld, Germany, visited the Art Institute for the purpose of classifying and cataloguing the collection of laces, embroideries and other textiles constituting the Collection of the Antiquarians, and of delivering a course of lectures upon Costumes and Fashions in Dress from earlier Centuries to our own times. He completed the work with the precision and dispatch of a thoroughly skilled expert, but was unable to remain to supervise the actual rearrangement of the collection. Since his visit all the small examples of textile art have been rearranged and remounted, according to his classification, under the direction of Miss Bennett, and are again in place in regular series in swinging frames. Dr. Schulze's lectures will be published under the Scammon lecture endowment. A collection of 374 valuable photographs of textiles, selected by Dr. Schulze, has been purchased.

The print department, which has suddenly taken on importance, has been carefully organized. The various questions connected with the care of such a collection have been determined, such as the standard sizes of mounts, styles of frames, methods of storage in portfolios and cases, forms of accessioning and recording, etc., and the whole collection has been catalogued. This work has been done in part by Miss Bennett and Miss Driscoll, and in part by Mrs. M. J. Coulter, who has had charge of the collection during the latter part of the year. The department is in its infancy, containing scarcely more than a thousand prints, but a considerable portion of these are of unusual value, the Meryons, Whistlers, Hadens, Piranesis, etc., and the Fair Fund provides for steady increase.

There is a growing demand on the part of visitors for guides through the collections. Miss Lucy C. Driscoll, an assistant to the Director, has during the past year acted as a docent or guide, conducting classes and parties through the galleries and describing the collections.

Mrs. J. B. Sherwood also acts as a docent, voluntarily contributing her time to this service. During the past season she has conducted gallery tours through the permanent collections every Thursday afternoon during the regular school year. This arrangement is most welcome to persons who care for more than a casual acquaintance with the paintings and other objects in the galleries.

In the school the attendance has been as follows:

Compared with last year the total attendance has diminished 585. Of this diminution only 22 is in the day school, and the change appears to be mainly due to the gradual dropping out of the great number of public school teachers who joined the school in 1907–8. The school earnings this year are $64,320.64.

At the close of the school year, June 18, 1909, the following awards were made:

The John Quincy Adams Prize, a Foreign Travelling Scholarship of $425.00, limited to American-born students who have not previously studied abroad, to Harry L. Gage, Battle Creek, Mich.

The American Travelling Scholarship of $125.00 to Datus E. Myers, Jeffersonville, Oregon.

The Tuesday Art and Travel Club Prize, a Foreign Travelling Scholarship of $500.00, limited to Chicago young women, to Dorothy Loeb.

The Frederick Magnus Brand Prizes for Composition to William E. Scott, Indianapolis, Ind.; Margaret Hittle, Chicago; Katherine Southwick, Stevens Point, Wis., and Harry Slater, Chicago. Certificates for three years of Academic study with credit were issued to one man and eleven women. In the department of Decorative Designing the regular three-year diploma was conferred upon three men and six women. In the Normal Department the regular three-year diploma was conferred upon one man and twenty-two women. In the department of Architecture the four-year diploma was conferred upon five young men and the two-year certificate upon three. The Home Travelling Scholarship of $250.00 in architecture, offered by the Art Institute, was awarded in March, 1910, to Karl F. Saam of Chicago of the class of 1910 for a design for “a Commons for The Armour Institute of Technology;” and the Charles Lawrence Hutchinson Medal in architecture was awarded to Ervin Saltsman Pashley for general excellence during the four-year course.

Mr. Vanderpoel has accepted an engagement for the next year with the Peoples’ University in St. Louis. He will however not terminate his relations with us, but will continue his lectures upon the Construction of the Human Figure. Mr. Harry M. Walcott has continued his work in the school through the year, to the great satisfaction of students and management, and will remain next year. Mr. Henry Rankin Poore of Orange, N. J., distinguished as an artist and an author, will deliver a course of lectures for students upon “Art Principles and Pictorial Form” in December, 1910. Mr. Charles Francis Browne was appointed Assistant Commissioner General of the United States to the International Exhibitions of Fine Arts at Buenos Aires, Argentine, and Santiago, Chili, and has been unable to do any work in the school this year. Mr. Frederick Oswald remains abroad. Mr. Charles E. Boutwood will spend the summer in England. Mr. F. D. Schook will go abroad for the year.

The accommodation of the school is much improved by the addition of eleven fine skylighted studios of ample size. The largest room, 38 x 32 ft., furnishes space much needed for mural painting on a large scale. The skylighted studios, including the architectural rooms, now number 28, and form a remarkable series 678 feet long, opening upon one side of a straight corridor 620 feet long. Besides these there are 26 side-lighted rooms devoted to school uses.

Art matters in Chicago, and indeed in the Northwest, are very much centralized in the Art Institute. The wide scope of our work, including the maintenance of permanent collections, passing exhibitions, library, school, lecture courses, publications, and a kind of universal bureau of art, together with the rapid growth of the various departments, taxes the resources of the management and the staff to the utmost; but our enthusiasm is sustained by the increase of usefulness and the sense of success.

This report is accompanied by the report of the Librarian of the Ryerson Library, and by complete lists of the accessions to the collections and to the library.

Very respectfully,

William M. R. French,
Director.
The records of the library show a greater growth during the past year than in any year previous. 669 bound volumes have been added, and 5 reported missing last year are found, which makes a total, with allowance for the 51 withdrawn and missing, of 6,217 volumes. The collections of Lantern Slides, Photographs and Pamphlets, and the Clipping File, which will be discussed in detail in other paragraphs, have received valuable additions and begin to assert themselves as important features of the library.

Of the 669 volumes added, 103 are in the architectural division, and include some especially valuable works on French architecture; 110 are in the department of decorative design, including a number of important works on textiles recommended by Dr. Paul Schulze; 119 are in the sections of drawing and painting, a large proportion of these being lives of artists; 63 are books of travel and geography; 42 are on the history, theory and practice of art, 27 on engraving and etching, 21 on sculpture; 42 are illustrated catalogues, 86 bound periodicals, and the remaining 56 include works on archaeology, landscape gardening, civic art, and miscellaneous literature.

Many important gifts have been received during the year, foremost among them Mr. Martin A. Ryerson's donation in January 1910, of $2,000 to be expended for books and furniture. From this fund have been purchased a great many valuable works of which we were much in need, and it has provided, in addition to some necessary catalogue cases, for a large book and supply case installed in the library office. Since the extension of this room last year the want of some such improvement has been constantly felt, and the new mahogany case with cupboards at either end and adjustable shelves, is most satisfactory, both for practical purposes and as an attractive addition to the room. It provides closed compartments with sliding shelves for some of our large heavy books, such as the Bishop work on Jade, that have never before been properly housed, and affords also a place which we have long needed, for rare books unsuitable for exhibition on the open shelves in the main library. Another use of this fund is planned for the near future, in the addition of a new book stack in the stack room below, where we begin to be cramped for shelf space.

Among other valuable gifts of the year especial mention may be made of Mr. H. H. Getty's important contribution of books and magazines, most of them French and English art publications of great interest and value to our library; Mr. Howard Mansfield's donation of his rare collection of literature relating to Charles Meryon; Mr. Ryerson's gifts of books and maps, including a copy of the scarce first edition of Hamerton's "Etching and Etchers," 3 volumes of "Turner's Annual Tour," especially valuable for the rare engravings of Turner's work, and two sets of most interesting road-maps of Italy, worked out in great detail to show all of the public roads of each district—an invaluable guide to tourists, especially motorists; Mr. Clarence Buckingham's gift of the celebrated Grolier Club catalogue of "The Etched Work of Whistler" by E. G. Kennedy, with over 1,000 reproductions of etchings illustrating different states of each plate; Mr. William Hoagland's donation of the text books and magazines used by his wife Mrs. Mary Hoagland, now deceased, and formerly a pupil of the Art Institute; Mr. Fritz von Frantzius' various contributions on modern German art; Mrs. James S. Watson's beautiful gift of the Amos W. Sangster etchings of the Niagara River, in 2 volumes; Mr. Charles R. Crane's donation of an interesting illustrated work on the Imperial porcelain manufactory at St. Petersburg; and the gift from the Chicago Literary Club of a valuable collection of unbound art periodicals. Many other useful gifts have been received, a complete list of which, excepting the unbound magazines and pamphlets, will be found elsewhere in this report.

Of important purchases from the Ryerson Gift especial mention should be made of Raymond Cox's "L'art de decorer les tissus," illustrated from specimens in the collection of the Chamber of Commerce at Lyons; Baudot and Perrault-Dabot's "Monuments historiques de France," and Furtwängler and Reichhold's "Griechische Vasenmalerei," a very large and important work subscribed to some years ago, and now finally completed.
The total attendance for the year has been 66,517, divided as follows:

The records of the Circulating Department show a total of 5,052 volumes, of which 3,530 were issued to students of architecture and design for class room use, and 1,522 for home use. This latter number is much larger than ever before because during this year the practice has grown of extending what we call “over-night privileges” on a great many of the books which do not really belong in the Circulating Department. Of course none of our very expensive or large books may be taken in this way, but others for which the students have at times special need, and which are also indispensable for reference purposes, may be taken when the library closes, and returned the next morning. This privilege has proved a great help and pleasure to the students, and it is hoped no reason may arise for discontinuing it.
Mention should have been made in the last report of the 58 additions to the Pearsons Collection of autotypes, by the gift of Ad. Braun & Co. of the reproductions made by their representative from paintings in our museum. It is greatly to be hoped that we may some day be able to bring our collection of these famous prints up to date. They are an invaluable part of the library, and have been especially useful this year in connection with the many "old masters" brought to us for identification.

The collection of small photographs now numbers 5,698, of which 507 were added during the year. The additions include an interesting collection of photographs of artists, presented by Mr. James S. Dickerson, the beautiful Holl- yer photographs of the Pre-Raphaelite school purchased in connection with the publication of Dr. Knight's lectures, and a set of charming interior and exterior views of old colonial houses in Salem, Mass. The collection is classified as follows: architecture 2,857, sculpture 1,662, painting 755, minor arts and miscellaneous 424. 808 of these prints have been circulated during the year, not including those consulted in the library. A new case has been added for the Minor Arts, and it is hoped that the photograph catalogue may be well advanced during the summer.

The Lantern Slide Collection has received 1,098 additions this year, and now numbers 6,665, divided as follows: painting 2,148, architecture 1,875, sculpture 1,378, minor arts 563, views 442, perspective 163, unclassified 96. The records of circulation show a total of 8,449, of which 1,499 were drawn by people not connected with the Art Institute. As arranged last year such borrowers have been charged a rental fee of 5 cents per slide, and our income from this source has amounted to $74.95 for the year. Our little collection is an unusually interesting one, and has been much complimented by lecturers, but it is very weak in certain places, and an appropriation for the purchase of additional slides is much to be desired. Nearly half of this year's additions are the gift of Mrs. John B. Sherwood, whose generosity toward the department is deeply appreciated. She has given us all of the beautiful slides, including many in color, which she uses in her various series of travel lectures. Among other donations to the collection may be mentioned Mrs. Arthur T. Aldis' gift of 48 slides of modern sculpture, and the contribution from the Art Students' League of 23 slides of Spanish subjects. A complete list of gifts, both of lantern slides and photographs, is given under "Acquisitions to the Library."

The Pamphlet Collection has been greatly improved and completely rearranged in the new Library Bureau pamphlet boxes. This is really one of the most important improvements of the year, and gives great satisfaction. For the first time a count of the pamphlets has been made, showing a total of 4,621. It is a valuable collection of material, and in its present arrangement proves most accessible and useful. For instance, individual or "one man" exhibitions have been collected in a separate set of files arranged alphabetically by artists' names. Many of these include biographical notices of the artists in addition to the lists of pictures, so that the file as a whole forms a sort of biographical dictionary of living artists, capable of continuous growth.

The Clipping File, the general plan of which is described in last year's report, has become an important supplement to our collection of books. It now contains 646 envelopes of miscellaneous material on artists and art matters, gathered from various sources, and has in many cases supplied information that could be found nowhere else. A catalogue of this clipping file has been made and is kept up to date. Our catalogues, both general and special, have grown to such an extent that a new case became necessary some months ago and was purchased as a part of the Ryerson gift for furniture. The general catalogue of the books now fills one case, and the other is devoted to special catalogues, the Illustration Catalogue, the Pamphlet Catalogue, the Clipping File Index, and the Analytical and Periodical Catalogue. This last index, which has not been reported before, is perhaps the most useful feature of our library routine. Since its beginning some three years ago it has grown very rapidly, and while it takes a great deal of time, is most decidedly worth its cost, for it has become an indispensable tool in our reference work. In it we aim to enter all important material in the current art magazines, also any analytical references that will aid us in finding quickly the exact object or information for which the student is searching, many of the references being made to pictorial reproductions as well as to written matter.
These special catalogues have been the object of much interest to librarians from other places and classes from library schools who have been here. We have had an unusual number of such visitors this year, and it is apparent that the library is coming into closer touch with other institutions of its sort, both in the city and outside. The helpful spirit of co-operation that is pervading the Chicago library world is most inspiring, and means a broader growth for all. A paper on the Ryerson Library was read at a meeting of the Chicago Library Club devoted to "Some Special Libraries of Chicago," and a similar article appeared, together with a number of others on Chicago Libraries, in the Educational Bi-Monthly for April, 1910. In January our library had the privilege of extending the hospitality of the Institute to the Chicago Library Club for its annual reception, given this year to the A. L. A. Council and the League of Library Commissions. This reception was pronounced a great success, and it is hoped that it may be repeated this year. Many prominent librarians from other cities were present.

The staff of the library remains unchanged. It has been eminently satisfactory so far as it goes, but next fall it will certainly be necessary to have an added assistant if we are to keep up with our routine work.

A list of magazines at present received is given below, and this report is accompanied by a complete list of gifts and other acquisitions to the library.

Very respectfully,

MARY VAN HORNE,
Librarian.

By-Laws of the Art Institute of Chicago

ARTICLE I
OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Members of the Art Institute shall be of four classes: Governing Members, Honorary Members, Life Members, and Annual Members.

Sec. 2. Governing Members only shall have the right to vote for or be eligible to the office of Trustee. They shall be chosen by ballot by the Board of Trustees at any of its meetings upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, and shall each pay into the treasury the sum of One Hundred Dollars or more; and in the election of Trustees each Governing Member shall be entitled to one vote. The annual dues of Governing Members shall be Twenty-five Dollars after the first year of membership, and no one shall exercise the rights of a Governing Member till his dues are paid.

The name of any Governing Member whose dues are unpaid on the thirty-first day of December of each year shall be posted by the Secretary in his office at the Art Institute, and notice of such posting shall be sent to such delinquent member; and in case he shall continue delinquent for six months after his name has been posted, and he has been notified as herein provided, the Executive Committee shall terminate his membership. The number of Governing members shall be limited to two hundred.
Sec. 3. Honorary Members shall be chosen from among persons who have rendered eminent services to the institution, or who have claim to the rank of artists or patrons of art. They shall be chosen in the same manner as Governing Members, but only upon the unanimous nomination of the Executive Committee. They shall be exempt from the payment of dues, and shall have all the rights and privileges of Governing Members, except the right to vote.

Sec. 4. Annual Members shall have the privileges of Honorary Members for one year upon the payment of ten dollars.

Sec. 5. All members shall be entitled, with their families, to admission to all exhibitions, receptions and public entertainments of the Art Institute, and all members shall be eligible to appointment upon committees other than the Executive Committee.

Sec. 6. Suitable certificates of membership shall be provided by the Board of Trustees, and shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary. At any election Governing Members may be represented by proxy, the presentation of their certificates admitting the person who holds the same to cast the vote to which its owner would be entitled if present.

Sec. 7. Life Members, upon the payment of one hundred dollars, shall have the privileges of Annual Members for and during their respective lives, and the money so received shall not be expended for current expenses, but shall be invested and the income thereof may be disbursed under the direction of the Executive Committee.

Sec. 8. Governing Members upon the payment of four hundred dollars shall be exempt from dues, and shall be known as Governing Life Members. The money so received from said Governing Members shall be invested, and only the income thereof expended.

ARTICLE II
OF MEETINGS

Section 1. The Annual Meeting of the Governing Members shall be held on the first Tuesday of June in each year, and at this meeting the Governing Members shall choose by ballot three Trustees who shall hold office for a term of seven years and until their successors are elected.

At the Annual Meeting in 1909 three Trustees shall be elected for seven years, three for six years and one for five years. At the Annual Meeting in 1910 three Trustees shall be elected for seven years, two for four years and two for three years. At the Annual Meeting in June, 1911, three Trustees shall be elected for seven years, one for two years, and three for one year. Vacancies in the Board of Trustees occasioned by death, resignation or removal from the State of Illinois may be filled until the next annual meeting by the Board of Trustees at any of its regular meetings. The President and Auditor of the South Park Commissioners, and the Mayor and Comptroller of the City of Chicago shall be ex officio members of the Board of Trustees.
Sec. 2. Regular meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held upon the first Thursday after the first Tuesday in June, and upon the last Thursday of October and January in each year. Special meetings may be called by the President at any time, and shall be called upon the written request of three Trustees. Seven Trustees shall constitute a quorum.

Sec. 3. The meeting at which these By-Laws shall be adopted shall be held to be the first regular meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Sec. 4. At the first regular meeting of the Board of Trustees, after the annual election each year, the Trustees shall choose by ballot, from their own number, a President and two Vice-Presidents. They shall also choose from their number four persons, who with the President and Vice-Presidents shall constitute an Executive Committee, and the President of the Art Institute shall be ex officio Chairman of the Executive Committee. They shall also choose by ballot a Secretary and a Treasurer.

Sec. 5. The President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, and Executive Committee shall hold office one year and until their successors shall be elected and qualified respectively. Vacancies in any of the above named offices may be filled by the Board of Trustees at any of its meetings.

ARTICLE III
OF DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of Governing Members, and the Board of Trustees, and shall sign certificates of membership.
Sec. 2. The Vice-Presidents shall be vested with the powers and perform the duties of the President in case of the President's absence or inability to act.

Sec. 3. The Secretary shall make and preserve complete records of all meetings of the Governing Members, and of the Board of Trustees, and shall perform such other appropriate duties as may be required by the Executive Committee.

Sec. 4. The Treasurer shall receive and keep funds of the Art Institute and shall disburse the same only under the direction of the Executive Committee, upon the order of the President, and countersigned by the Secretary. His books shall be open at all times to the inspection of Trustees. He shall make a full financial exhibit of the institution at the Annual Meeting of Governing Members, and shall make such additional reports from time to time as may be required by the Executive Committee. He shall give a bond in such amount, and with such surety as shall be approved by the Executive Committee, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

Sec. 5. The Executive Committee shall have full control of the affairs of the Art Institute, under the general direction of the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE IV
OF AMENDMENTS

These By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting of the Trustees, by a two-thirds vote of all the members present, provided the amendment shall have been proposed at the last regular meeting preceding, or shall be recommended by the Executive Committee.

Form of Bequest

I do hereby give and bequeath to the Art Institute of Chicago, in the City of Chicago, a corporation created under the statutes of Illinois (here should follow amounts or objects bequeathed) to be applied to the uses and purposes of said institution.

The Trustees are deeply grateful to those who have already made gifts and bequests, and earnestly solicit all those wishing to aid and encourage the Trustees in the work that the Art Institute is accomplishing, either to give or bequeath to it, money, pictures, sculpture, or books for its library. Endowments are greatly needed for the purchase of paintings, sculpture and books, and for prizes, lectures, additional buildings, the art school, etc.
Honorary Members

Honorary members are chosen from among persons who have rendered eminent services to the institution, who have claim to the rank of artists or patrons of art.
