THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The Museum building upon the Lake Front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from 9 to 6, Sundays from 12:15 to 10. Admission is free to members and their families at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

The Art School, in the same building, includes departments of Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Illustration, Decorative Designing, Normal Instruction, and Architecture.

All friends of the Art Institute are invited to become members. Annual Members pay a fee of ten dollars a year. Life Members pay one hundred dollars and are thenceforth exempt from dues. Governing Members pay one hundred dollars upon election and twenty-five dollars a year thereafter. Upon the payment of four hundred dollars Governing Members become Governing Life Members and are thenceforth exempt from dues. All receipts from life memberships are invested and the income only expended.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by the Art Institute, and to the use of the Ryerson reference library upon art. Visitors desiring to see the collections of the Museum under guidance may make appointments with the museum instructors.
THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

Chicago, June 9, 1914.

To the Governing Members of the Art Institute of Chicago:

The progress of the Art Institute during the past year has been marked by steady growth and development rather than by startling incidents. The regular monthly attendance of visitors has been materially increased, the installations have been greatly improved, and the additions to the collections have been valuable.

The most important single accession is the remarkable collection of etchings by Anders L. Zorn, one hundred and forty-three in number, presented in July, 1913, by Mr. Wallace L. DeWolf.

Other important accessions are:

Painting by George Inness, presented by Edward B. Butler.

Pottery of the Near East (57 pieces) given in honor of Mrs. Mary J. Gunsaulus by her son Frank W. Gunsaulus.

Charcoal drawings (21), Thackeray series, by F. Hopkinson Smith, purchased.

Chinese silk tapestry weavings (9), presented by the Antiquarian Society.

Paintings (14) by Chase, Foote, Poole, Bartlett, Ryder, Stuart, Henderson, Meakin, Grover, Sargent, Williams, Gay, Dearth, Lie; presented by the Friends of American Art.

The Trustees of the Art Institute are the trustees of the income of the B. F. Ferguson Fund for the erection of monuments in Chicago. The first work completed under this fund is the Ferguson Fountain of the Great Lakes in Grant Park, at the south terrace of the Art Institute. This fountain, the work of Lorado Taft, sculptor, was publicly dedicated, September 9, 1913, with appropriate exercises. Mr. Charles L. Hutchinson, President of the Art Institute, formally presented it to the South Park Commissioners and Hon. John Barton Payne, President of the South Park Commissioners, accepted it in their behalf.

A monument commemorative of the admission of Illinois to the Union in 1818 is under consideration. It is a monumental column designed by Henry Bacon, architect, and it is proposed to erect it in Logan Square.

Mr. Lorado Taft has been commissioned to prepare full-size models of his proposed Fountain of Time to be erected upon the Midway. Mr. Taft has been authorized at a fixed price to model the fountain in plaster, ready to be cut in marble, the preparatory models to be completed within five years. The price stipulated will probably not consume more than one-third of the fund during these five years. There is an accumulation of the fund now in the hands of the Trustees more than sufficient for all obligations incurred, including the Taft commission. The Trustees, therefore, are not precluded from undertaking other works during the coming years.

The B. F. Ferguson Fund at present amounts to $1,096,070.60 subject to certain charges and annuities, and the annual income applicable to sculpture is $34,287.18.

The regular attendance of visitors steadily increases.

Last year the aggregate number of 925,607 included the exceptionally large attendance during the sensational “Cubist Show.” This attendance, which amounted to 188,650 in 24 days, exceeded that of the same period in the preceding year by 141,470, so that we had this number to overcome in order to reach the attendance of last year. Setting aside this excess the normal attendance last year was 784,137. This year it has been 861,267, showing an increase of 77,130 in the normal attendance, and this increase has been distributed fairly evenly over the year.

The receipts applicable to operating expenses of the Museum, derived from memberships, door fees, catalogue sales, the South Park tax, and sundry other sources, have amounted to $155,895.00, while the operating expenses (including the Ryerson Library and Fullerton Memorial Hall) have been $165,262.63, a deficit of $9,367.63.

In the school department the receipts from tuition fees, locker fees, matriculation fees, and sundry sources have been $76,610.88, while the expenditure, for salaries, models, heat, light, janitor service, accessions, etc., has been $81,300.55, a deficit of $4,689.67.

The income from endowment, part of which is restricted, has been $33,482.31; and $33,359.89 have been expended for paintings for the galleries, books for the library, scholarships, prizes, and the Scammon lectures, leaving a surplus of $122.42.

Upon June 1, 1913, the invested funds were $580,071.34. During the last fiscal year they have been increased by the following receipts:
Amount received from 226 life memberships........ $22,600.00
Amount received from 5 gov. life memberships...... 2,000.00
Amount received from the Frank Sherman Fairman Scholarship Fund .................. 3,500.00
Amount received from Insurance Fund ............... 1,666.03
Amount received from the Joseph Brooks Fair Fund. 170.43

Total ........................................ $29,936.46
So that the present amount of invested funds is..... $610,007.80
The indebtedness of the Art Institute June 1, 1913, was 226,500.00
This has been reduced by receipts from the sale of real estate bequeathed by Catherine M. White...... 5,000.00
And by payments from the income of the Stickney Fund, and from gifts for building additions...... 8,000.00
And increased by temporary loans, account of building additions and operating expenses......... 13,500.00
So that the total liabilities now are............... 227,000.00

The Art Institute also owns real estate in Evanston valued at $8,000.00, constituting the residue of the Catherine M. White estate. A list of the endowment funds is appended to this report. The Life Membership Fund, founded in 1897, now amounts to $160,800.00.

The year's monetary gifts total $44,948.56. A list of important additions to the Museum is appended to this Report.

During the past year six Governing Members have died: George W. Sheldon, William A. Giles, Clarence Buckingham, Byron L. Smith, Albert G. Farr, F. W. Crosby and A. Montgomery Ward. P. A. Valentine has resigned and R. Hall McCormick, Jr., and Abram Poole, Jr., have been elected. There are now 156 Governing Members.

The death of E. W. Blatchford occurred January 25, 1914. During the whole history of the institution Mr. Blatchford was a member and was the first Vice-President.

By the death of A. Montgomery Ward the Art Institute lost an old member and friend. Mr. Ward was a Governing Member for twenty-five years, from 1888 to 1913.

Byron L. Smith, a Governing Life Member, died March 22, 1914, and left a bequest of ten thousand dollars to the Museum.

On March 31, 1914, Frederick W. Crosby, a Governing Member, died, and left a bequest of ten thousand dollars to the Museum.

George W. Sheldon, a Governing Member, died July 21, 1913, leaving his estate in trust until after the decease of his widow, a sister and an adopted daughter, when the estate is to become the property of the Art Institute.

The will of Miss Martha S. Hill, step-sister of the late Charles W. Fullerton, left the sum of thirty thousand dollars for a trust fund for the maintenance of Fullerton Memorial Hall. Both money and pictures were presented by Miss Hill from time to time before her death.

Clarence Buckingham, for thirty years a Governing Member and for twelve years a Trustee of the Art Institute, died of heart disease in Chicago, August 28, 1913. During the last eleven years Mr. Buckingham had been active in the management of the Art Institute as a member of the Executive Committee. He made various gifts to the museum both of money and of paintings. One of the large paintings in the center of the building, "The Obelisk," by Hubert Robert, was presented by him. The Print Department was enriched by a gift from him of fifty fine impressions of Piranesi etchings. His especial taste was for etchings and Japanese prints, of which he possessed notable collections. This collection has now been deposited temporarily in the Art Institute.

The loss of his cheerful and animated presence and his quick and sound judgment will be long and gravely felt by his associates in the Art Institute. The following resolution was adopted by the Board of Trustees at a meeting held October 30, 1913:

"The members of this Board are deeply affected by the sudden passing away of their associate, Mr. Clarence Buckingham, and desire officially and personally to record their profound sense of loss, and of sympathy for his relatives. Mr. Buckingham was for 30 years a Governing Member, for 12 years a Trustee and for 11 years a member of the Executive Committee of the Art Institute. During this time the museum has been indebted to him for successive gifts of money, prints, and paintings, but more than this, he has shown a living interest in the institution, attending meetings regularly and contributing his valuable counsel and mature judgment to the deliberations and decisions of the Board. Himself a collector and connoisseur, particularly of etchings and Japanese prints, his advice and judgment in these departments were especially useful. His animated and cheerful temperament, quick habit of decision, and uniform good temper, made him a most congenial and valuable associate, and the Trustees will not cease to mourn his loss."

The demands on the Institute continue to increase but the space devoted to museum purposes has not been enlarged, a matter of regret, as this limits the field of action. It is quite plain that other museums are interested and taking pattern from our activities, and to continue the fine record already established we must enlarge our building to accommodate our artistic growth.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR
THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

Chicago, June 1, 1914.

To the Board of Trustees of the Art Institute of Chicago:

The extensive changes in the installations during the past year have greatly improved the galleries in beauty, convenience and classification. No fewer than thirteen galleries have been entirely rearranged, while thirteen others have been reset, most of them many times, to accommodate temporary exhibitions; that is, more than half our exhibition rooms have been rearranged.

The most important change has been the removal of the collection of the Antiquarian Society, consisting of textiles, furniture, wood and stone carvings and other decorative objects, from the second floor to the first floor. Space was obtained by removing the reproductions of sculpture, Renaissance and modern, from the north wing of the first floor, and distributing them through other galleries without excessive crowding.

The classification is well preserved, and very few of the casts have been retired, though a few important works are not well exhibited. The Renaissance sculptures now occupy the main central hall, while the modern sculpture is distributed about the central stairway. The impression upon the visitor entering is much improved. The main central hall, Room 8, following the collections of the south wing in regular order, is occupied wholly by sculpture of the Italian Renaissance, and the modern sculpture, American and foreign, is installed in the center of the building, the American chiefly on the first floor, the foreign on the second. The Antiquarian rooms to the left are very fine. Rooms 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 have been redecorated in gray tones of rough plaster. The oriental textiles occupy Room 9, immediately north of the main entrance. The large collection of textiles in swinging frames is placed in the north corridor, Room 11. The displacement of the reproductions of sculpture formerly occupying these galleries has been accomplished with unexpected success.

The galleries vacated by the Antiquarian Society are occupied, Room 43 by Mr. Ryerson's interesting collection of modern French pictures, Room 45 by the Print Department, Room 46 by the Mary Blair Collection of Mediaeval and Renaissance art, and Room 47a by the Buckingham prints. The ivory collection has been removed from Room 47 to Room 36, adjacent to the Field Collection and is becomingly installed. The Pell collection of porcelains has been installed in Room 52a.

Of all these changes none has been more satisfactory than the establishment of the Print Department in a suitable place, a thing greatly desired for some years past. The former long galleries on the third floor were admirable exhibition rooms, well adapted to prints, but being alone on that floor they were secluded and not much visited. The spacious room now devoted to the exhibition of prints, Gallery 45, has been partially divided by screens, and has been redecorated, the walls covered with natural color burlap and the trim and coves finished in a kind of old gold lacquer. In this room are now installed the remarkable collections of etchings by Meryon.
and Zorn, together with a certain number of Pennell's works. The available space will soon be greatly increased by the introduction of swinging frames of special design, which will accommodate 125 or 150 additional prints. A special Committee on Prints has been established by the Trustees: Wallace L. DeWolf, Chairman, Kenneth S. Goodman and Thomas E. Donnelley. This Committee, having at length fine exhibition space and a good opportunity, is actively promoting and developing the department.

The most notable addition to the Print Department this year has been the gift of the Wallace L. DeWolf Collection of Zorn Etchings. To this original collection of 142 etchings by Zorn and one related etching by Besnard have been added sixteen new prints, examples of Zorn's latest work. A scholarly catalogue of the collection has been printed, edited by Miss Kathryn McGovern, the assistant in charge of prints.

The most important accession to our galleries is the loan by Mr. Martin A. Ryerson of a collection of representative works by modern French painters (in Gallery 43), including Monet, Renoir, Pissarro, Sisley, Lépine, Carrière, Puvis de Chavannes and others; and in Gallery 31 many important additions by Flemish, French and German masters of the 15th and 16th centuries, among whom are Sebastian Schel, The Master of the Death of the Virgin, Bartholomäus Bruyn and Roger Van der Weyden.

One of our most active members, Mr. Clarence Buckingham, died August 28, 1913. Mr. Buckingham was for thirty years a Governing Member and for twelve years a Trustee. His interest in the Institute was keen, and he made frequent gifts of money or art objects. The resolutions of the Trustees have been embodied in the report to the Governing Members.

The collections of etchings by the great masters of that art, and of Japanese color prints, formed by Mr. Buckingham and now owned by his sisters, Miss Kate and Miss Maud Buckingham, were deposited with the Art Institute, in March, for safe-keeping, and Mr. Frederick W. Gookin was appointed the Curator. While not placed on public exhibition, arrangements have been made for special exhibitions from time to time. The prints may be seen by interested persons upon making an appointment with the curator at the Art Institute during exhibition hours. They are kept in metallic cases in Gallery 47a.

The etchings comprise rare and fine impressions from many of the most famous plates. A large number of these are from well-known collections that have been dispersed during recent years, affording unusual opportunities for the acquisition of early proofs. The Japanese prints are exceptional both in quality and condition, and form one of the finest collections in the world. Some are so rare that no other copies are known to exist. Mr. Buckingham began buying prints in 1894, and in the intervening years until his death last summer he seldom missed an opportunity to acquire any that would add to the interest and artistic value of the collection and would come up to the high standard he had set for it.

The Mary Blair Collection of Mediaeval and Renaissance Art which was placed on exhibition in January remains in place in galleries 46 and 47. This collection comprises about 125 pieces of old furniture, weavings, sculpture, paintings and other objects.

The Rev. Alfred Duane Pell continues to add to his collection of porcelains installed in gallery 52a. The accessions for this year are 22, including pieces of great merit and beauty.

A purchase of importance was a pair of Chelsea vases, a pair of Chelsea figures and a pair of Bow figures, as additions to the Amelia Blanxius Collection. These pieces all bear characteristic marks. One pair is by Roubiliac.

An important accession to the ceramic collection is 57 pieces of Persian pottery, rich in color and varied in style and period. This gift is to be known as “Pottery of the Near East, given in honor of Mrs. Mary J. Gunsaulus by her son, Frank W. Gunsaulus.”

The Ida LaVerne Noyes jewelry, the gift of Mr. LaVerne Noyes in memory of his wife, has been installed in a case especially made to display it to the greatest advantage.

The medal collection grows in importance. Mr. Blewett Lee has added twenty-three medals and plaquettes, and Mr. Edward E. Ayer has presented thirty-one medals of American Indians by Edward A. Sawyer.

The exhibition of contemporary Spanish paintings collected in Madrid by Miss Ethel L. Coe met with unusual success. It was exhibited at the Art Institute from May 15 to July 20, 1913. The pictures were afterwards shown in seven American cities: Chicago, Muskegon, St. Louis, Detroit, Toledo, Columbus and Philadelphia. Five paintings were sold, and will remain in this country. “Uncle Tapiro of Segovia,” by Valentin de Zubiaurre, was purchased by the Art Institute.
Howard Shaw, Frederic C. Bartlett, Arthur T. Aldis, and Abram Poole, Jr., have been appointed as a special committee to plan for an exhibition of modern German paintings, to be held in January, 1915. Mr. Shaw is chairman of this committee. Mr. Aldis and Mr. Poole have been in Germany for some time.

The Scammon Lectures were delivered in January by Mr. F. Hopkinson Smith. By the terms of the Scammon foundation these lectures are “primarily for the students of the Art Institute,” but it is the custom to throw them open to the members also. It was foreseen that they would be overcrowded, and arrangements therefore were made that they should be delivered to the students without public announcement upon January 19, 21, 26 and 28, and repeated on following days for the members. This plan was carried out, and the lecture room was filled at every lecture, by students and members alternately.

The lectures will be published by Scribner under the title “Outdoor Sketching,” and will form an illustrated book of moderate size, especially adapted to the use of art students.

Mr. Smith's admirable charcoal drawings, and water colors of Venice, London and Dordrecht, which were exhibited at the same time, were a good illustration and enforcement of the methods which he recommended. The twenty-one charcoal drawings known as the Thackeray set have been purchased and placed in the permanent collections of the Art Institute.

A change was made in the spring course of lectures on the History of Painting. The course was given this year by Miss Lucy Driscoll, assistant to the Director, and was planned with special regard for the needs of the students, who were further guided by bibliographies and outlines of study.

The Antiquarian Society Collection, the Blanxius Collection, and the Gunsaulus Persian Pottery, in fact the entire collections of industrial art, have been completely relabeled. The general catalogue of the museum has again been revised and brought up to date.

One great improvement has been carried out whenever opportunity offered, the painting on, in permanent medium, of the accession number of each object in the collection. This work takes time and accuracy and it is hoped that it may be continued and completed during this coming year.

Mrs. Herman J. Hall reports a successful year of museum instruction. The total number of persons in groups, private lessons and classes requiring docent service was 9,168 and the total receipts from fees were $1,103.75. Besides the general work Mrs. Hall has held regular classes in art history. Miss Helen Carson has been appointed to assist Mrs. Hall for the coming year. She will give special attention to developing the work with children.

Miss Mary Van Horne, for two years assistant librarian and for six years librarian of the Ryerson Library, has tendered her resignation, to be married. Miss Van Horne has been untiring in her efforts to promote the efficiency of the library, and the severing of her connection with the Art Institute will be a matter of regret to all. Miss Sarah Louise Mitchell, formerly assistant in the Library of the School of Education, University of Chicago, has been appointed her successor.
Miss Bessie Bennett, assistant to the Director, spent a profitable summer in France gathering data in Normandy, Brittany, Finistère and the Châteaux country.

Mr. Antonin Sterba has been granted a leave of absence from the school for a year’s travel abroad. Mr. Boutwood who has been sketching and traveling on the continent has decided to remain another year. Miss Ethel Coe has returned from her two years’ study in Spain and has resumed her position in the school.

Mr. Karl Albert Buehr, after a long residence abroad, has returned to Chicago and has been re-appointed a teacher in the school. Mr. Andrew N. Rebori and Mr. John F. Alter, of the School of Architecture, have resigned their positions. Mr. Dudley Crafts Watson, several years ago an instructor in the school, has received the appointment of Director of the Milwaukee Art Society.

Changes have been made in tuition and registration fees in the art school. The matriculation fee of the day school has been raised from $2.00 to $5.00, two dollars of which is to go to the library and three dollars for the expenses of the school; the night class matriculation fee is $2.00, to be used for school expenses, and the tuition has been increased from $7.00 to $9.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fairman have presented the sum of $3,500.00 as a scholarship fund, to be known as the Frank Sherman Fairman Scholarship, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fairman and Mrs. Ann E. Bostwick Beers (deceased) of Newtown, Conn. This is to be awarded to a student in the art school who is of recognized merit and in need of financial assistance.
REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

Mrs. W. B. Forsyth has presented a year's scholarship to the Department of Decorative Design, to assist a young woman of earnest purpose and talent. The Tuesday Art and Travel Club Scholarship of five hundred dollars has been divided into five one hundred dollar scholarships, in order to assist a larger number of young women than formerly.

Twenty-four students now attending the Institute are enjoying the benefit of either a full or half time scholarship. The number of students who are earning part or all of their scholarship through services rendered the Institute outside of school hours is 48. Of these, 24 are members of the faculty in the capacity of assistant teachers instructing in the Juvenile Classes on Saturday forenoons and afternoons. The commissions distributed among the students during the past year amounted to $2,295.00. This is in addition to furnishing the students with outside employment.

The students from other countries are becoming numerous and there now are representatives from England, Greece, Japan, China, Russia, Sweden, Turkey and Canada. The states of Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Iowa lead in the number of students in attendance.

Four special exhibitions of student work were sent out during the past year to Denver, Dallas, Madison and Des Moines in addition to those lent to schools in Chicago.

At the meeting of the Western Drawing and Manual Training Association held in Milwaukee in May, fifty-one graduates of the Normal Department were present. This association will hold its next meeting at the Art Institute the first week in May, 1915.
THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

Last November color prints of 20 important paintings of the museum were placed on sale; and during the six and one-half months ending May 30, 1,694 prints were sold, an average of 260 a month. Since October, when the new series of post cards was placed on sale, the monthly sale of post cards advanced from less than 4,000 to more than 16,000 a month.

The fourth season of the Sunday afternoon concerts was conducted in Fullerton Hall under the auspices of the Chicago Woman’s Club. Two concerts were given on 27 Sundays, the total attendance being 22,831 with an average attendance of 423. An admission fee of ten cents was charged for each concert. There have been also 26 Sunday evening opera concerts given in Fullerton Hall. The admission fee was twenty cents, each concert. The total attendance for the year was 10,289, giving an average attendance of 395. The receipts from these concerts paid their expenses.

The Annual Meeting of the National Institute of Arts and Letters and the American Academy of Arts and Letters was held in Chicago, November 13, 14 and 15. The sessions were held in Fullerton Memorial Hall. The members were the guests of honor at the reception which marked the opening of the Annual Exhibition of American Paintings and Sculpture, and many well-known writers, musicians, painters, architects and sculptors were present. Works by the artist members of the National Institute were shown in the exhibition.

The Fifth Annual Convention of the American Federation of Arts was held at the Art Institute May 21, 22 and 23. On Thursday, May 21, the American Association of Museums was also in session here. This was the third day of the ninth annual meeting of this Association, the first two days of the conference having been held in Milwaukee, May 19 and 20. About 125 Federation members and 50 museum men were entertained. Luncheon was served in Blackstone Hall Thursday and Friday, and dinner at the Cliff Dwellers' Club. Automobile trips about the city occupied Thursday and Friday afternoons, the tour on Friday being followed by a private view of Mrs. W. W. Kimball's collection of paintings.

This report is accompanied by lists of the accessions to the collections and to the library, by lists of lectures and exhibitions, and by various statistical tables.

Very respectfully,

WILLIAM M. R. FRENCH,
Director.
WILLIAM M. R. FRENCH

The Art Institute of Chicago suffered a great loss by the death, on June 3, 1914, of Director William M. R. French. Mr. French was almost seventy-one years of age and death came as the culmination of a great lifetime work. He had just completed thirty-five years of service as Director. During this long period he administered the affairs of the Art Institute with rare wisdom and judgment. His utter absorption in his task, which was also his pleasure, his unceasing devotion to the highest ideals of service have been vital factors in promoting the welfare of the institution, and, more broadly, the cultural life of the community.

Mr. French was born at Exeter, New Hampshire, October 1, 1843, the son of Henry Flagg and Anne (Richardson) French. His father was a lawyer of note in New Hampshire and later in Massachusetts, and was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for ten years. His grandfather, Daniel French, was for a time Attorney General of New Hampshire; and his maternal grandfather, William Merchant Richardson, was Chief Justice of that state.

Mr. French was prepared for college in the public schools and Phillips Exeter Academy. In November, 1860, he entered Harvard College, from which he was graduated in 1864.

He served in the Civil War in a Massachusetts regiment until illness compelled his retirement, and then took up engineering and landscape gardening. In 1867 Mr. French settled in Chicago. About 1872 his numerous professional writings for journals and societies became sought after, but in 1874 he began to yield to his natural proclivities for art pursuits. He wrote art reviews, delivered lectures, and in 1878 became Secretary of the Chicago Academy of Design.

In 1879 the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts, subsequently re-named the Art Institute of Chicago, was organized. Mr. French had charge of the School and Museum from the beginning. At first he received the title of Secretary, which was later changed to Director. Although the development of the Art Institute was his absorbing occupation he found time to write for publication and acquired a national reputation as a lecturer on art subjects.

Mr. French was one of the founders and a charter member of the American Association of Museums, and its president, 1907-1908. He was a charter member and president, 1912-1913, of the Chicago Literary Club.

The following resolutions have been adopted by the Trustees:

"WHEREAS, the departure of William Merchant Richardson French from the scene of his abundant labors and achievements is an event of such importance to us as officers of the Art Institute of Chicago, and to the realms of Art and the Life Beautiful, that it is resolved by the members of the Board of Trustees of the Art Institute of Chicago that we hereby acknowledge with profound gratitude the long years of his service and make this slight memorial to the inspiriting influence of his personality and the assured widening of his influence in the years to come.

Child of the Puritanism which once feared artistic representations lest they might issue in idolatry in Church, or falsity in the building of the State, the pillar of his character became nevertheless like the pillar in the Temple of his God, 'and upon the top of the pillar there was lilywork.' He embodied the vision of the singer of religion and art in the fact that 'strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.' The sanctuary of such a life does not crumble with death, and from its altar rises an incense of memory and hope.

Resolved, that in the possession of such an invaluable asset as the spherelike character of William M. R. French is a fact of primary significance in the creation of such an institution as ours, and the regnant influence of his ethical ideals is a multiplying factor for the noblest professional and personal results in the lives of students of the aesthetic. His spirit and its aims are enwrought with the very texture and give color to the warp and woof of the life of thousands of young men and women who have gone forth from us.

Resolved, that we particularly express to the wife and children our sincere sympathy, while we all unite in gratitude for so many years of satisfied fruitage which came with him as a blessing and abide with us as his benediction."

It was authorized that these resolutions be spread upon the records of the meeting, and that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.
REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN
REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN

Chicago, June 6, 1914.

To the Director and Trustees of the Art Institute of Chicago:

The present state of the library is shown in the following tables:

Contents of the Collections:

Books .................. 8,946  Lantern slides ........ 12,435
Photographs ............ 30,976  Maps ................. 307
Pamphlets .............. 8,562  Post cards .......... 4,455

(The number of books includes the Burnham Collection.)

Attendance for the year: c. 78,165.

Circulation:

Books .................. 12,675  Photographs ............ 5,634
Lantern slides ........ 17,715

(The circulation does not include the use of photographs for lectures in the library class room, nor the use of books in the library. It has been decided to lend post cards freely and a record of circulation will be kept hereafter. The circulation of Public Library books has amounted to 928 volumes.)

Details of these records may be found in the table of statistics appended to this report.

The reports of the library, from the first brief mentions in the Director's reports in the '80's, through the first separate statements in the early '90's, to the announcement in 1900 of Mr. Ryerson's gift for the new building, and so on until the present time, tell the story of remarkable development.

The development in size is not remarkable, for the numerical growth of the library has been very slow and gradual, but the development in use by the school, the museum and the general public is quite unprecedented among libraries of this kind.

To the wisdom and foresight of Mr. French and Miss Forrester, the first librarian, who directed the formation and early growth of the library, is due the policy of administration which has resulted in the great usefulness of a small collection of books.

The following table presents an interesting record of growth:

New Developments. The most interesting development in the library this year is the evening and Sunday opening. The total Sunday attendance has been 6,109 or an average of 115 a Sunday. The total evening attendance, counted from 7 to 9:30 three evenings a week, has been 4,629, an average of 40 each evening. This average is almost half as many as that recorded by one of the large libraries in the city which has for years been open until 10 each evening.

Another successful experiment has been the issuance of special library tickets giving holders free admission to the library at all times. A notice of these tickets was posted on the bulletin board in the fall, and in the winter a printed notice was sent to about 400 architects' offices of the city announcing that the Burnham Library of Architecture was open free three evenings a week and that special tickets for admission at all times would be issued to responsible persons employed in architects' offices. As a result of this notice and the general notice in the Bulletin, 222 library tickets have been issued this year to architectural draughtsmen, teachers of art history, writers and others doing special research work along art lines, and to designers and illustrators working in the business houses of Chicago.

Gifts. The most important gift of the year was $2,000 from Mr. Ryerson for the purchase of books and furniture. Mr. Ryerson presented also several interesting books and pamphlets including a set of illustrated portfolios of art and travel in Portugal, especially valuable since we have had almost nothing about this country before. Mr. H. H. Getty has sent a unique contribution of books on Oriental art and travel and catalogues of private collections. His gifts are always material which we would not otherwise obtain and the great value to the library of his various yearly donations would be difficult to estimate. Mr. John G. Johnson has presented the handsome three volume catalogue of his art collection. The Metropolitan Museum has given a copy of its catalogue de luxe of the exhibition of old Dutch masters in the Hudson-Fulton celebration. Prof. William F. Gurley has made a notable gift of 25 large volumes on various subjects, many of them illustrated with rare old plates of great interest and value. Mr. Floyd Mechem has again given $25.00 for the purchase of books, and valuable books and pamphlets have been given by Mrs. Frank W. Barker, Mrs. C. W. Brega, Sr., D. J. Cebrian, Mr. Fritz von Frantzius, Mr. F. W. Gookin, Mr. Alfred E. Hamill, Mr. C. L. Hutchinson and the Misses Smale. Mr. G. C. Longman has presented an extremely valuable set of Claude Lorrain’s “Liber Veritatis” in 3 volumes. This work will probably be transferred to the Print Department, but it is at present in the Library, so acknowledgment is made of it here.

Gifts to the Photograph, Lantern Slide and Post Card departments have been numerous. From Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Ware we have received 621 photographs and 129 post cards of European art and travel, from Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus 96 slides of subjects from Boydell’s Shakespeare, from Mr. George A. Gibbs 66 photographs, from Miss Nellie Carpenter 217 post cards, from Miss Margaret Enders 54 photographs, from Mr. Ryerson 124 post cards, and from Mrs. John B. Sherwood 24 lantern slides, several of them in color. Other gifts to these departments are noted in the list of donors accompanying the report. Miss Edith Emerson has contributed valuable material for the Clipping File.

Mr. Ryerson has added 22 numbers to the collection of road maps of Italy. The map collection now totals 307 of which the greater number are European road maps given by Mr. Ryerson. They cover in detail courses of travel and especially the automobile roads of France, Italy, Germany and minor countries of Europe.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN

Important foreign purchases have been made in the lantern slide and photograph departments from the income of the Sprague Fund, which has been a great boon to the department. From Braun & Company of Paris have been bought 855 slides of European paintings; from the Istituto Micrographico of Florence 221 slides of Italian architecture and painting; from Mansell of London 173 slides and 291 photographs of English art and works in English galleries; from Bruckmann of Munich 100 photographs of Greek sculpture; from Alinari 576 photographs of Greek sculpture and European paintings; and from Anderson 523 photographs of Italian painting. About 150 of the inexpensive Seemann color prints of paintings, ancient and modern, have been bought for the use of the students in the classes of color composition, and are accessible to all students and visitors.

PHOTOGRAPHS AND LANTERN SLIDES. This department, under Miss Helen Carson's direction, developed into a sort of bureau of information and assistance for lectures in women's clubs, art societies, schools, churches and social settlements all over the country. A little pamphlet of information about slides, photographs, their renting rates, etc., was published last fall and has been useful in connection with the correspondence, which is very heavy in this department. In February Miss Carson resigned her position and was succeeded by Miss Diantha Hulbert.

BURNHAM LIBRARY. During the current year all the books on architecture were withdrawn from the Ryerson Library records and were entered on the new records of the Burnham Library. Few new additions have been made to the collection, which now numbers 1229, but the committee has a series of important lists in preparation. Gifts of books on architecture have been received from Sr. D. J. C. Cebrian, the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy, from Mr. Wm. F. Gurley, Mr. C. L. Hutchinson, Mr. C. K. Needham, and Mrs. James S. Watson.

The reception to students was successfully repeated this fall, with short talks by the Director and the Librarian. One result of these talks is an increased use of the catalogue by the students and teachers.

It is with great regret that I offer my resignation as librarian, and with a deep sense of gratitude and appreciation for the loyal help of my staff and the ever courteous consideration of my superior officers.

This report is accompanied by a table of statistics, a list of magazines, a list of donors and a selected list of the accessions for the year.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY VAN HORNE,

Librarian.
