The Director, and the Curator of the department are ex officio members of the committee in each instance.
THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The museum building upon the lake-front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from 9 to 5:30, Sundays from 12:15 to 9 p.m. Admission is free to members and their families at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, is under the same roof.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by the Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts), and to the use of the Ryerson Library.

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with the museum instructors in Gunsaulus Hall.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I do hereby give and bequeath to the Art Institute of Chicago, a corporation created under the statutes of Illinois (here should follow amounts or objects bequeathed) to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Art Institute of Chicago.

The Trustees are deeply grateful to those who have already made gifts and bequests, and earnestly solicit all those wishing to aid and encourage the Art Institute in the great work which it is accomplishing with comparatively small resources, either to give or bequeath to it money or works of art of the high degree of excellence to which it must needs aspire. Endowments are greatly needed for maintenance and acquisition of Far Eastern art objects, original sculpture, building, particularly a much needed children’s room, and to endow the art school and place it on a permanently paying basis; for dormitories and other equipment needed.
REPORT OF TRUSTEES
FORTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

Chicago, January 1, 1922.

To The Governing Members of the Art Institute of Chicago:

The year just passed has been one of the most gratifying in the history of the Art Institute.

THE ATTENDANCE greatly exceeded that of any other American museum. This is due in part to The Art Institute's fortunate geographic position, but in still greater measure it is the result of its public service. Attendance during the year ending December 31st, 1921—including each student of the school once for each school day—was 1,224,894, an increase of 88,720 over the previous year.

THE MEMBERSHIP of all classes now stands at 13,196, a gain of nearly one thousand over 1921. This achievement in a year marked by industrial depression is most significant, not only of the esteem in which our institution is held by the general public, but of the excellent work of the membership department. To the new members we extend the more hearty welcome, as the year just past has been a rather difficult one for many. It is our hope that one and all may find here that inspiration for life and work which comes only from association with the beautiful.

THE ART SCHOOL is again crowded to capacity, with a long waiting list. The raising of entrance requirements and the intensive program outlined for the first and second years has resulted in a more wholesome student-body morale. A four-year course leading to a degree is receiving serious attention by a committee of the faculty. A closer affiliation with local industries is suggested by the foundation of the department of Printing Arts, headed by Ernst Detterer, the complete equipment of a room for metal work and jewelry, donated by the Manufacturing Jewelers Association, which is under the instruction of James H. Winn; the appointment of Mrs. Myrtle M. French to teach weaving and pottery and of Miss Ella Langenberg as instructor for a class in Home Furnishing and Interior Decoration. New classes in mural painting and decorative portraiture are taught by Harry I. Stickroth, a fellow of the American Academy in Rome. Leopold Gould Seyffert, who has received the highest awards at national and international exhibitions, has been appointed instructor in portrait and figure painting.

One-fifth of the painters, sculptors, craftsmen and art teachers of the United States have received their training wholly or in part in our Art School. In this connection it is interesting to note that the percentage of graduates who have entered some phase of art production as a profession has increased from 72% in 1917 to 84% in 1921.

The CHICAGO TRIBUNE has offered a prize of $5,000 for the decoration of their city room, to be awarded to a student of the school through a series of competitive projects extending throughout the year.

A Sculpture Competition with a prize of $2,000 was instituted by the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS. The successful design will be cast in bronze and installed as the central motive in a fountain to be erected in Lincoln Park in front of the Sanitarium for sick children maintained by that journal.

Students and readers using the RYERSON and BURNHAM LIBRARIES number 79,042, an increase of 21,441 for the year. Other statistical information, together with a record of gifts, will be found elsewhere in this report. Two important mural paintings by Frederic Clay Bartlett, generously donated by the artist, have been installed in the Burnham Library: “Building the Great Wall of China” and “The Erection of a Skyscraper.” The Tuesday Art and Travel Club has made an initial gift of $200 to found a reference Library for the Department of Printing Arts.

The Extension Department conducted two circuits during the year: Lectures and demonstrations by Ross Crane on Interior Decoration, by Miss Evelyn D. Hansen on Dress, and by F. A. Cushing-Smith on Landscape Gardening were held in twenty-five cities of Iowa, Kansas, Texas, California, Utah, Colorado, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio, New York, Illinois, and in Washington, D. C. The second circuit visited eleven cities in Michigan, Minnesota and South Dakota. Hunt Cook and H. D. Hemenway were lecturers.
Sixty-one TEMPORARY EXHIBITIONS were held in the galleries of the Art Institute during the year. In addition to the annual exhibitions of the Chicago Society of Artists, the Architectural Society, the Chicago Society of Etchers, of American Painting and Sculpture and of American Applied Arts, the most notable innovation was that of the Annual International Exhibition of Water Color Painting. Among other noteworthy exhibitions were those by the Russian artist Nikolai Roerich, Abram Poole, Frederic Clay Bartlett, Harry I. Stickroth, Leopold Gould Seyffert, and Alfonso Iannelli. Because of budget restrictions and of the desire to promote the work of permanent installation, the temporary exhibitions during the coming year will probably be fewer but of even greater importance.

SALES OF PAINTINGS, SCULPTURE, ETCHINGS AND APPLIED ARTS amounted to about $40,000. The Trustees feel that every effort should be made to increase the sale of the work of living artists consistent with dignified museum practice.

In the DEPARTMENT OF PRINTS important exhibitions have included lithographs by Odilon Redon, the Potter Palmer collection of engravings of early 16th century Italian and German Masters, the Clarence Buckingham collection of etchings by Rembrandt, the Cyrus Hall McCormick collection of etchings and other prints by Millet, lithographs and etchings by Whistler, Haden, Cameron and Buhot from the Bryan Lathrop collection. During the year 788 prints have been added to the Print Collection. Of these the greater number were purchased in Germany by Dr. Hans Singer of Dresden from a fund of which $2,000 was given by Wallace L. DeWolf and $1,000 appropriated from the Joseph Brooks Fair Fund. Miss Kate Buckingham has presented one half interest in the collection of etchings and engravings made by her brother, the late Clarence Buckingham; Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer have added forty-five prints to their "Little Masters" collection, and Mrs. Albert Roullier and Miss Alice Roullier have made an initial gift of twenty-two modern French Prints as the beginning of a collection to be known as the Albert Roullier Memorial Colleclection of Prints. Forty-five additional prints have also been donated by Wallace L. DeWolf and nine by the Chicago Society of Etchers. Miss Kathryn W. McGovern, assistant in charge of prints, has resigned to be married. Her place has been filled by the appointment of William McC. McKee as Curator of Prints and Drawings. Mr. McKee, who comes to us from The Cleveland Museum of Art, will also have the custody of Water Colors and Illuminated Manuscripts. Ten manuscript pages were purchased during the year, chiefly from the Brewster Fund. A group of Dutch drawings of the school of 1840 (the so-called School of the Hague) are the gift of Mrs. J. A. Edwards as a memorial to her husband. Robert Allerton has again shown his interest in the development of this department by the gift of a number of modern French drawings, including works by Degas and Rodin. An excellent drawing of "Rodin at Work," by Raffaelli, has also been presented by Mrs. Lewis L. Coburn. Twenty-six drawings and watercolors have been presented by the Friends of American Art, including five by John S. Sargent, five by Arthur B. Davies and five by George Bellows. The Friends of American Art have given the following paintings during the year: "Arbor Day," by E. F. Savage, "Mount Lovewell" by C. F. Ryder, "Portrait of Miss McFadden" by Abram Poole, "A Model" by Leopold Seyffert, "The Dancing Lesson" by Cecilia Beaux; additional gifts from the same source include ten pastels by William P. Henderson, a portrait bust of Frank Duveneck by Charles Grafly, and the "Winged Horse" by John Storrs. Among other notable paintings presented during the year may be mentioned the "Grandmother" by Louis Kronberg, the gift of Mrs. Lewis L. Coburn; "Duneland" by Frank V. Dudley, given as a memorial to her mother by Miss Gracia M. F. Barnhart; "The Shepherdess and Sheep" by Jacque and "The Cowherd" by Lhermitte which have come to us as part of the bequest of Mrs. John C. Black.

THE DEPARTMENT OF ORIENTAL ARTS has been recently created. Mr. J. Arthur MacLean, whose long experience in the Boston and Cleveland Museums has particularly fitted him for this position, is Curator of this department, which will cover works of the Near and Far East. Gifts to this department include important Japanese Prints, Oriental Porcelains, Persian Miniatures;
Japanese and Korean sculpture and painting donated by Miss Kate Buckingham, Robert Allerton and Russell Tyson.

To THE DEPARTMENT OF DECORATIVE ARTS Miss Kate Buckingham has presented a large collection of lustre ware in the name of her sister. The collection, which was made by the latter, the late Miss Lucy Maud Buckingham, includes the largest and most complete group of English lustre in existence. A Dutch peasant room has been given by the heirs of Mr. and Mrs. William Gold Hibbard in their memory. Funds for the purchase of a French 18th century room have been presented by Mrs. Henry C. Dangler in memory of her late husband. Under the will of Mrs. W. W. Kimball, who died on June 13, 1921, her valuable collection of paintings, consisting of eight 18th Century English, eleven French Impressionists, three old Dutch masters, was bequeathed to the Art Institute eventually. The paintings have been entrusted to our care, pending litigation which seeks to break the will.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSEUM INSTRUCTION has increased its work though the staff is smaller than in previous years. There was an attendance of 11,681 as compared with 9,718 in 1920. The department is self-supporting and undermanned. At least two other instructors are needed to meet the demand from our membership and from the schools. Only one out of every hundred of the 410,500 school children in Chicago is reached at the present time. Miss Constance Sargent, Mount Holyoke, 1920, has been appointed Museum Instructor.

Meetings held in Fullerton Hall numbered 270, with a total attendance of 99,290. Over 10,000 persons were present at the 131 convocations and dinners held in the Club Room. Lorado Taft again continued his generous gift of twenty-two Sunday lectures, which were attended by 8,092 persons. Attendance at the annual reception numbered 4,200. Twenty-six receptions were held in the galleries; fifty-five week day lectures and programs and fifty-four Sunday concerts were given.

George William Eggers resigned as Director of The Art Institute October 1, 1921, after an association of five years which has been both stimulating and constructive, to assume the task of developing a large museum in Denver. Mr. Eggers will find in his new field opportunity and time to develop his creative side.

Robert B. Harshe, a man of wide experience and a trained museum executive, until then Associate Director, was appointed by the Trustees Director of The Art Institute. A careful reorganization of the museum, made necessary by its rapid growth, is in progress.

THE B. F. FERGUSON MONUMENT FUND reports progress on the model for the Theodore Thomas memorial by Albin Polasek and the Eugene Field Memorial by Edward McCartan. The Fountain of Time, by Lorado Taft, is being cast in concrete and given a proper setting by the South Park Commissioners. Preliminary studies for the decoration of the bridge houses on North Michigan Avenue are in preparation.

Notwithstanding that this has been a year of business depression, at no time has The Art Institute received so many and so valuable gifts as have come to it during the last year. The endowment funds have increased as follows: Life Membership Fund, $53,100; Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan Fund, $2,200; The Adams Fund, $5,000; The Fuller Fund, new and unrestricted, $5,000. The most important new gifts are: The unrestricted sum of $100,000 bequeathed by Mrs. John C. Black, as a memorial to her husband who was for thirty-two years a trustee of The Art Institute and greatly interested in its work; The William T. Baker Fund of $51,760, bequeathed by Howard Baker in memory of his father; The income from the Joseph Winterbotham gallery fund of $50,000 is to be used for the acquisition of modern European paintings; The Robert Alexander Waller Fund of $50,000, bequeathed by his widow, Mrs. Lina S. Waller, as a memorial to her husband. The Henry L. Frank Fund of $25,000 is unrestricted as to the use of the income. Other bequests made by Fannie Oplatka, Albert Stein and Charles D. Ettinger are elsewhere enumerated in detail. The income from the Robert Rice Jenkins Prize Fund of $1,000 given by his mother as a memorial is to be given to a young artist who has not previously received an award.

Of unendowed gifts we will mention here especially the George Alexander McKinlock gift of $200,000 for the building and embellishment of McKinlock Court in memory of his son, George Alexander McKinlock, Jr., who lost his life in France during the war, and the gift of $50,000 by Mr. and Mrs. John G. Shedd.

Among the Governing Members must be recorded the loss by death of Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, John C. Hately, F. W. Morgan, Albert H. Wolf, and by resignation of Francis King. New governing members elected to fill these places are: Ralph Cudney, Samuel A. Marx, George A. McKinlock, Charles L. Peterson and Augustus S. Peabody.

Life Memberships were extended to Mrs. Anna L. Gunsaulus and Mrs. Josie L. Stein.

The crying need of the institution is for additional room for storage, shops, studios and exhibition galleries.

1856-1921

(From the address of Charles L. Hutchinson, read at the Memorial Service held in the Auditorium, Sunday, April 24, 1921.)

Dr. Gunsaulus, preacher, teacher, orator, patriot, poet, and artist, and, best of all, a devoted follower of his Master and a lover of his fellow-men! He was in a class by himself. In paying tribute to his memory, it is difficult for one to confine his remarks to one phase of his many sided character.

Dr. Gunsaulus was an Art lover. The lover of everything that is good and true and beautiful in life. Emerson spoke the truth when he said we are immersed in beauty. Still there are many, very many among us who are not conscious of its existence. You may travel far and wide in search of the beautiful, and not be able to find it unless you carry it with you. It is the office of Art to educate the perception of beauty.

Dr. Gunsaulus was a lover of the beautiful in nature and in art. He was also a lover of his fellow man. The love of beauty is the means of happiness, so it is not strange that we should find in Dr. Gunsaulus not only a lover of Art, but one who appreciated its far-reaching influence and recognized its power to bring pleasure and inspiration into human life. This, Dr. Gunsaulus was constantly striving to do—striving enthusiastically and successfully. I often thought that he labored not so much to make other people good, as to make himself good and other people happy. Art was a factor in his life and he believed it should be a factor in all lives.

In the eloquent tribute of our gifted friend, Dr. Hillis says: "He toiled for the people of Chicago, for the Commonwealth of Illinois, and for the Republic, this preacher, educator, patriot—this great heart." And to all of this I wish Dr. Hillis had added: He was also an artist. There are many men who possess the artistic instinct, who are not able to express themselves in painting and sculpture. Dr. Gunsaulus was one of them. He was a constant worker, and gave to the cause of Art, not only in Chicago, but throughout the West, a service hard to be over-estimated. To appreciate the value of this service and to realize how far-reaching it was, one must be acquainted with the development of Art in our country during the lifetime of Dr. Gunsaulus.
Dr. Gunsaulus came to Chicago in 1887, shortly before our city had begun to make preparation for the greatest and most significant event in the history of art in America—the World's Columbian Exposition, in which he was himself actively interested. The development of the Fine Arts in this country, especially in the West, has shown steady and remarkable advancement since that time, especially because those who were most intimately connected with the cause recognized the true function of Art and had faith in its educational value. Dr. Gunsaulus was among the first to recognize and preach it. He believed, with the advanced workers in the field of Art, that the Art Museum should stand side by side with the Library and the Laboratory, all co-operating in the enlightenment and cultivation of the people—vital factors in the everyday life of the community.

But because he placed service above culture, he held the doctrine of art as a vital factor in redeeming the materialistic age in which we live and believed that, as Thomas Nelson Page has so well expressed it, "Art is a luxury for the rich but a necessity for the poor."

In sympathy with all who held these truths, Dr. Gunsaulus was ever ready to help in the development of Art.

At the Art Institute, which to him, as to ourselves, represents the rallying point of all the forces striving for the expression of the artistic spirit of this great city, Dr. Gunsaulus was very much in evidence. He loved to work here. He had a great appreciation of what the Institute is trying to do and none of its friends ever made greater sacrifice to promote its interests. The Institute is indebted to him for the very fine Wedgwood collection and the Mary Jane Gunsaulus collection of pottery of the Near East.

For thirteen years he was one of the Art Institute's most devoted Trustees. To it he gave unsparingly of his time, thought and money. While he was one of its spiritual builders, his enthusiasm was one of its best business assets. Always optimistic, he was always constructive in his advice as in his criticisms.

Much as he wrought of himself and with his own gifts to enhance its worth, the gifts which he induced others to bring were even greater than his own. To this phase of his activity belong the fine Amelia Blanxius collection of porcelains, the gift of Mrs. Hodge and Mrs. Bell, and Gunsaulus Hall, named after him by the giver, Mr. W. H. Miner. The W. Moses Willner bequest is another munificent gift which came to the Institute through his efforts, while several of the trustees acknowledge their gratitude for the inspiration to serve the cause of Art which they received from him.

How he loved to share the abundance of his life with others! His generosity puts us all to shame. Full to overflowing with spiritual love, he gave in large measure to all with whom he came in contact.
We have reason to rejoice, although at times our hearts are sad, and to thank God that it has been our privilege to walk in loving friendship with this great High Priest of Truth and Beauty and Goodness—this great lover and devotee of Art, the living exponent of the truth uttered by the Philosopher who said: "Truth, Beauty, and Goodness are but the different faces of the same All."
