THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every weekday from 9 to 5:30, Sundays from 12:15 to 9 p.m. Admission is free to members and their families and to school children of Illinois at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, is under the same roof.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by the Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts), and to the use of the Ryerson Library.

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with the museum instructors

SUGGESTED FORMS OF BEQUESTS

I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, . . . . (amounts or objects bequeathed or list of same) for such uses consistent with the purposes of the aforesaid corporation as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I direct that my executors, out of the remainder of my estate shall set aside stocks, bonds and notes, or other securities of the value estimated by them to be sufficient to make the sum of . . . . . . dollars, which I hereby give and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, for uses consistent with its purposes as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, a corporation of the State of Illinois, . . . . . . dollars to be held and applied by the trustees thereof for the uses and purposes of that institution.

I give, devise and bequeath to the said The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, the lands, tenements and hereditaments aforesaid, the leases and all my interest therein and in the covenants therein contained and in the rents to accrue thereunder, and also the reversions in fee in the lands above described.

I direct that my executors shall from my general estate pay over in convenient installments to the trustees of The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, such amounts as shall equal . . . . . . . . dollars per annum for the period from the date of my death until the . . . . . . day of . . . . . . , 19 . . , which amounts I give and bequeath to the aforesaid The Art Institute of Chicago to be received and applied by its Trustees.

The Trustees are deeply grateful to those who have already made gifts and bequests, and earnestly solicit all those wishing to aid and encourage the Art Institute in the great work which it is accomplishing with comparatively small resources, either to give or bequeath to it money or works of art of the high degree of excellence to which it must needs aspire. Endowments are greatly needed for maintenance and acquisition of Far Eastern and classic original art objects, original sculpture, building, particularly the Children's room and museum now in course of construction, also to endow the Art school and place it on a permanently paying basis; for the Industrial Arts school; for dormitories and other equipment needed.
To the Governing Members of the Art Institute of Chicago:

It is our privilege again to summarize for you the year’s work of the Museum and the School. During the last three years the expansion of the institution has been noteworthy and rapid. Nearly one and one-third millions of dollars have been expended in excavation, in construction and in installation. There has been, however, no corresponding increase in our funds to meet maintenance charges. It was necessary therefore to begin, a year ago, with a heavy budget deficit. This deficit has been met in part by rigid economies, cancelling much needed improvements, and in part by the excellent work of the Membership Department. During the year 1924 this department added to our Life Membership Endowment Fund $85,900, making a total in this fund of $613,200. The net income through this department was $132,000, an increase over the year 1923 of $37,000. We now have a total membership of 14,132, a gain of 1,112 over last year.

Endowment funds have been increased during the year by $242,025. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester have generously endowed the Children’s Museum by a fund of $50,000, thus making possible the expansion of our educational work which was begun by contributions solicited from Women’s Clubs through a committee appointed by the Municipal Art League of which Mrs. Leo Heller was the able chairman. The James R. Owen Fund, totally unrestricted, added $40,927 and may approximate $50,000 ultimately. The James Nelson Raymond Scholarship Fund, gift of Mrs. Anna L. Raymond, is $12,000. Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan increased their Prize Fund by $10,000 to provide a portrait prize in The American Paintings and Sculpture Exhibition. The Milward and Florence James Adams competitive Scholarship in the Dramatic Art Department, $10,000. The M. V. Kohnstamm (picture) Prize Fund, $5,000. The L. L. and A. S. Coburn Trust Fund was increased by $5,000 to $30,000. Gifts of cash to Hutchinson Wing Drive reached $1,209,181, of which all but $66,000 was collected.
Fifteen American paintings, including important examples of the work of J. H. Twachtman, Robert Henri, J. Alden Weir and Emil Carlsen, were given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schulze as a memorial to their son, Lieutenant Walter H. Schulze. With this gift a fund of $10,000 was established for maintenance and endowment.

The Alexander McKinlock Junior Memorial Court, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. George McKinlock, has been planted with grass-plots bordered by formal hedges and intersected by gravel paths which meet around a central fountain.

The Art Institute has been called the house of the arts. Painting and sculpture and applied arts are shown in its collections and taught in its school. The Architectural School of the Armour Institute of Technology is housed under its roof. Now with the gift of $350,000 from Mr. and Mrs. William O. Goodman, a memorial to their son, the playwright, the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theater has been founded, bringing under our wing the sister art of the drama. The building flanking the Monroe Street Bridge will be the home of the Dramatic Arts Department of the Art Institute School. The head of this department is Thomas Wood Stevens, formerly Instructor in Mural Painting and Illustration in The Art Institute School, and for the last ten years the head of the School of the Drama in the Carnegie Institute of Technology at Pittsburgh. This department began its work in January, 1925.

Pending the completion of the Theater, which is promised for April of this year, the department will give readings, free to Members of the Art Institute, in Fullerton Hall. Some of the performances in the theater, for which a rate, especially modest, will be made to members, will be given by the students of the department. More finished productions will be offered by the repertory group made up of the faculty of the department and the fellowship students, an organization of high professional standard. The plays given will range from Greek tragedy to modern melodrama, through the plays of Molière and Racine, through Shakespeare, through English eighteenth century comedy to the significant dramatic creations of our own times. The department, it is hoped, will especially foster and give emphasis to the work of the American playwright.
The Trustees of the Art Institute have set aside an area to the south of the Hutchinson Wing for the intensive training of the American designer, so that the manufactured product of our country may compete on equal terms with that of European nations. For the excavation of this space, for surrounding it with a substantial outer wall of concrete and for the construction of a school unit connecting the Alexander McKinlock Junior Memorial Court with this area, the Trustees have expended about $116,000. The Association of Arts and Industries under the Presidency of Col. Wm. Nelson Pelouze has raised a fund of $65,000 to construct and equip this building. The Association is now engaged in securing an additional $200,000 to meet the requirements of a promised conditional gift of $100,000 coming from an anonymous source.

The Scammon lectures, which have, through lack of funds, been discontinued for the past two years, will have for their subject matter the History and Evolution of the Industrial Arts Movement. They will be given by Professor Charles Russell Richards, President of the American Museums Association, and author of Art in Industry, a survey for the National Society of Vocational Education (1922).

The Trustees have approved the recommendation of the school committee and have authorized the granting of a degree upon the completion of a four-year course in Teacher Training.

Leaves of absence have been granted for one year to Leopold Seyffert and to Elmer Forsberg. Their places have been filled by the appointment of Leon Kroll and George Oberteuffer.

The Director wishes here to acknowledge the generous co-operation of the Field Museum in the opportunity offered our students. Classes regularly meet at our sister institution, working under the guidance of our instructors. The study of anatomy of animals and birds, of the application of primitive design, of the structure and color harmonies of plant and insect forms have added greatly to the content and effectiveness of our work. The Field Museum has recently published a large portfolio of drawings made by our Freshman students.

The Art Students' League, an organization of graduate and undergraduate students, has inaugurated a scholarship fund with $2,800, and has further increased the John H. Vanderpoel Scholarship Fund to a total of $4,000. Mr. Edward B. Butler has increased the Students' Aid Fund, founded by him, in the sum of $900. In the Department of Paintings and Sculpture the most notable gifts to the Art Institute have been the bronze "Adem" by Rodin, the gift of Robert Allerton, and the Washington standing portrait of the Landsdown type by Gilbert Stuart, for which funds were secured by popular subscription. This campaign owes its success to Mayor Dever's Committee of Seventy-five, of which Paul Schulze was the efficient chairman, and to the help accorded him by the newspapers of Chicago, in particular by the Chicago Herald-Examiner and the Chicago Tribune.

The Friends of American Art have added to the important works presented by them to the Art Institute, "Selectmen of Province-town," by Charles W. Hawthorne; "Light and Shadow," by John Norton; and "Washday in Spring," by John R. Grabach. "Near the Shores of a Lake," by Albert Besnard was presented by Joseph Winterbotham, who has since presented another amount of $5,000 for a picture to be purchased. Other important acquisitions of this Department, purchased through the Stickney Fund, include "Woman at her Toilette," by Berthe Morisot; "Still Life," by Chardin; "Bronze Head of War, Meade Memorial," by Charles Grafly, acquired through a purchase prize offered by Mrs. Keith Spalding; "La Douleur," by Rodin, gift of Robert Allerton, and a miniature painting by Isabey, the gift of Mrs. C. H. Scheppe.

A gallery devoted to the exhibition of portraits of painters and sculptors, opened between the Munger and the Nickerson Rooms, has proved to be an interesting experiment. The new installation of the Loan collection of Spanish paintings, to which our own masterpiece by El Greco has been added, gives adequate emphasis to this extremely noteworthy collection.

In the Decorative Arts Department series of important period rooms were installed and opened for exhibition in the Hutchinson Wing: a Jacobean room, given by the Buckingham children in 1918 in memory of their parents; a Georgian room, the gift of Mrs. Waller Borden in memory of her mother, Ellen Waller; a Deal room purchased from the Culver Fund in 1922; a Frisian room, gift of the children and grandchildren of William Gold and Lydia Beekman Hibbard; a Regence room, the gift of Mrs. Henry C. Dangler in 1923; The Lucy Maud Buckingham Memorial Gothic room given by Kate S. Buckingham in memory of her sister, is the most important acquisition in the history of the department. With its original doorways, windows, corbels and fireplace, its sculpture, furniture and tapestries, a new standard is set for the museum both in acquisitions and in installation.

In the gift of the Herbert Pickering Lewis Memorial Collection of Mexican Talavera ware the museum became possessed of the second largest collection of its kind among American Museums. The notable collection of pewter brought together by Mrs. William O. Goodman has recently been installed in the large central gallery of Gunsaulus Hall.

The Ryerson Historical Textile collection has been moved to the north side of Hutchinson Wing where it forms an exhibition sequence with the Antiquarian collections and those shown in the Mr. and Mrs. John G. Shedd Gallery. Among noteworthy gifts to this department during the year may be noted those of the Antiquarian Society of brocades and other textiles and the chintzes and printed textiles presented by Robert Allerton.

The most important events in the Oriental Department for the year 1924 are the purchase of the Moura collection of Cambodian sculpture and the installation of the Lucy Maud Buckingham Collection of Chinese Sculpture, pottery, porcelain, and snuff bottles. Either one of these events would be sufficient to distinguish a museum year. The Buckingham collection, constantly growing, is becoming one of the outstanding collections of the country and the Cambodian collection is second only to that of the Musée Guimet in Paris.

In the field of near Eastern Art the Department has been unusually fortunate in the anonymous gift of a Persian velvet of the Shah Abbas Period. It is one of the very few pieces known, and it is probably the most perfect.
During the year four new Oriental Galleries have been opened. In two are the Buckingham Collections, in one the Nickerson Collection, and the fourth contains loans.

Acquisitions in the Department of Prints and Drawings include thirty-four drawings, the gift of Robert Allerton, the Print and Drawing Club, and Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer; water colors by Abel Pann and Ben Silbert, the gift of Mrs. Julius Rosenwald and Mrs. Emanuel Mandel; etchings, engravings and prints donated by Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer, by Walter S. Brewster and Alfred E. Hamill. Especially noteworthy was the bequest by Ethel Wrenn of 16 etchings by Rembrandt, and 38 etchings by Whistler, and a group of French and English 18th Century Aquatints acquired by purchase through the G. W. Sheldon Fund and through the gifts of Potter Palmer, Martin A. Ryerson and the Print and Drawing Club. Mrs. Albert Roullier and Miss Alice Roullier added 16 important prints to the Albert Roullier Memorial Collection and 12 prints were added by the Chicago Society of Etchers.

The Poster Collection of The Art Institute was during the year turned over to this Department and increased by 60 Swiss and British works, the gifts of George L. Porter, Robert Allerton, Mrs. C. H. Chappell and others. The happy arrangement of the Print Library where the visitor may examine groups of prints and at the same time find at his elbow books of reference is growing daily in usefulness and in popularity. Summarizing the acquisitions of the year, The Department of Painting and Sculpture 37 works; The Department of Decorative Arts 164 works; The Department of Oriental Art 259 works; The Department of Classic Art 11 works; The Department of Prints 572 works; The Children's Room 179 works—a total of 1,335 objects in all.

Eighty thousand readers used the Ryerson and Burnham Libraries during the past year. 48,191 slides were sent to 22 states and to Canada. About 12,500 photographs were loaned. 1,111 volumes were added to the Ryerson Library, making a total of 17,895 and 260 volumes to the Burnham Library, a total of 3,835 or a grand total of 21,730. Four departmental libraries, i. e., the Library of Prints and Drawings, the Library of Printing Arts, the Library of the Teacher Training Department of the School, and the Library of The Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theater have been established. The books for these libraries are to be ordered and catalogued by the Ryerson Library.

Twelve thousand, nine hundred fifty-three adults attended the 524 classes offered by the Department of Museum Instruction; 280 lectures and concerts were given in Fullerton Hall, attended by 101,445 people. 108 meetings were held in the Club Room by organizations and societies. The Art Institute Restaurant serves each day an average of 800 visitors and students. The net receipts during the past year were over $6,850. The net profit from sales of reproductions during the year was $3,184; 20,000 color prints with a total retail value of $7,500 were given to us by magazines and lithographic firms for the privilege of reproducing paintings.

Charles R. Thorne has generously offered to underwrite the publication of a series of hand-books covering the Departmental Collections. The hand-book of paintings, the first of this series, is nearing completion.

Of some eighty exhibitions of a temporary nature, held during the year, may be mentioned, besides the annual exhibitions of American Paintings and Sculpture, Chicago Artists and Etchers, International Water Colors, Applied Arts, these: Etchings by Albert Besnard, Prints by English Society of Printer-Gravers in Colour, Paintings by Sargent, Bellows, Kroll, Gaspard, Oberteuffer, Bartlett, Cameron, Peyraud, Cahill, Silbert, Birren and others, and the Cizek exhibition of work by Viennese school children.

The Arts Club Exhibitions include paintings, drawings and prints by Pamela Bianco, Georges Braque, Rockwell Kent, Marie Laurencin, Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec, also Joseph Brummer antiquities.

Especial loan collections shown in various Departments include The Cyrus H. McCormick Collection of 18th Century English and Barbizon Paintings, The Birch-Bartlett Collection of Modern Paintings, The Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan Collection of Paintings, The Charles L. Hutchinson Collection of Paintings, The John R. Thompson Collection of Renaissance Paintings, Tapestries and Textiles, The Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Stout Collection of Paintings, The Mr. and Mrs. Francis Neilson Collection of Paintings and Dudley Crafts Watson, formerly Director of the Milwaukee Art Institute, has been added to the staff as extension lecturer.

The Theodore Thomas Memorial by Albin Polasek was dedicated by the B. F. Ferguson Fund Trustees. The Pere Marquette Statue by Hermon A. MacNeil, and the four reliefs for the bridge-houses on the Michigan Avenue bridge by James E. Fraser and Henry Hering are progressing toward completion.

The names of three benefactors have been added to the benefactors' tablet, namely: Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester, and Paul Schulze.

New governing members elected to fill vacancies are:

- SEWELL L. AVERY
- BRITTON I. BUDD
- NOBLE B. JUDAH
- JOSEPH R. NOEL
- SILAS H. STRAWN

MRS. C. T. BOYNTON
MRS. CHARLES A. CHAPIN
MRS. CHAUNCEY McCORMICK
MRS. ROCKEFELLER McCORMICK
MRS. HOWARD SPAULDING, JR.
MRS. LEVERETT THOMPSON

During the year the Art Institute lost by death the following Governing Members:

- FRANCIS BEIDLER
- H. M. BYLLESBY
- WILLIAM C. COMSTOCK
- JAMES B. FORGAN
- JAMES P. GARDNER

MRS. CHARLES L. HUTCHINSON
ALBERT H. LOEB
HENRY J. TOWLE
GEORGE MANIERRE
CHARLES HULBURD
MRS. A. COONLEY WARD

The Art Institute also lost Peirce Anderson, a valued member of the Burnham Library Committee; Ferdinand W. Peck, only survivor of the five original incorporators of the Art Institute; Albert Fleury, for many years an instructor in the Art School; and Mrs. Herman J. Hall, for many years at the head of the Museum Instruction Department, died after long illness in June. In a year marked by great achievements the Art Institute must acknowledge its heaviest misfortune in the death of Charles L. Hutchinson, its President since 1882.

Serious gaps still yawn in the Art Institute Collections but its greatest need is maintenance funds to cover current expenses, to provide modern ventilation for its school and original building, to finish its entrance staircase and lobby and to bring the lighting and installation of its galleries of paintings and classic art to the standard set in the Hutchinson Wing.

MARTIN A. RYERSON,
FRANK G. LOGAN,
Vice Presidents.
CHARLES LAWRENCE HUTCHINSON
1854—1924

CHARLES LAWRENCE HUTCHINSON, President of the Art Institute of Chicago, passed away on October 7, 1924. He was often called "Chicago’s first citizen," and no one who knew him can deny that the title was worthily bestowed. His energy, his resourcefulness, the clarity of his vision, the very human and likeable qualities that were peculiarly his, will live long in the memory and the hearts of men. In the city which he helped to create, there is no phase of educational or philanthropic work that has not enjoyed his generous support. He was a dreamer of dreams who lived to see them built into concrete form. His entire life was dedicated to public service, but his service to the Art Institute was so intimate, his devotion so complete that it is not possible to measure it. He was the Art Institute, and it will stand as his most permanent monument.

Mr. Hutchinson was born in Lynn, Mass., in 1854 and came to Chicago as a child. He became prominently identified with the civic and cultural development of Chicago as a young man. In May, 1879, he was one of twenty public-spirited citizens who met to form an organization for the promotion of art in the city. This organization, first known as the Academy of Fine Arts, soon became the Art Institute of Chicago, and Mr. Hutchinson, having served as auditor and trustee, was elected President in 1882. He held the office until his death. The city was then much smaller, raw, and young, but Mr. Hutchinson’s vision went far beyond the immediate needs of the community, and his plans were always for an art center that should satisfy the requirements of the city of the future and bring beauty within the reach of every man, woman, and child.

For thirty-two years, Mr. Hutchinson, William M. R. French, Director, and Newton H. Carpenter, Secretary, worked together with whole-hearted devotion to the building up of the Art Institute. First Mr. French, and then Mr. Carpenter died, and George William Eggers carried forward the work as Director. Mr. Hutchinson lived to see many of his cherished plans bear fruit, and to watch the Art Institute become more and more closely identified with the life of the city. It was ever his belief that art must be a vital force, not a thing apart, in the community life. Every change, improvement, or addition that should bring the people closer to the Institute and the Institute closer to the people was dear to him, and he gave of himself unstintingly, tirelessly, to that end.

Despite the many other claims and demands made upon his time, Mr. Hutchinson’s interest in the Art Institute never relaxed. The personnel of the Museum knew and loved him, looked forward to his daily visits, and never failed to derive inspiration from his own enthusiasm and from his friendly counsel. He will be greatly missed by those who were privileged to know him.

As the Art Institute grows in usefulness and service to the city, it will approach nearer to the ideal toward which Charles L. Hutchinson worked for more than forty years and for which he laid enduring foundation.

RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORY OF MR. HUTCHINSON

THE following resolutions upon the death of Charles Lawrence Hutchinson, President of the Art Institute, have been adopted by the Trustees:

““To Charles Lawrence Hutchinson, our President, who passed away on the seventh day of October, we, the Trustees of the Art Institute of Chicago, indite this tribute of affection and esteem.

“Interesting himself from the first in the movement for the fostering of Art in Chicago, Mr. Hutchinson soon was called upon to assume its direction as President of the Art Institute, and for forty-two years he labored in this cause faithfully, diligently and with rare ability and understanding. At the beginning of his administration the Art Institute was little more than a name and a purpose. Step by step he watched and fostered its growth until now that purpose is being generously fulfilled and that name has won a distinguished place on the roll of institutions devoted to Art.

“He was drawn to this task by a natural inclination toward the refined and the beautiful, and his success in it was largely due to this sympathy, guided by sound judgment and admirable taste. But we, his co-workers, privileged to view at close range his labors, know what a great element in this success was the widespread confidence inspired by his admirable personal character. No man stood higher in the esteem of the community. Absolute integrity, a kindly and friendly attitude toward his fellow men and an unselfish devotion to the public welfare drew to him a host of friends who were ever ready to listen to his advocacy of any good cause. They knew that, unmindful of personal advantage, indifferent to the accumulation of wealth, he was himself a generous giver of means as well as of time and energy; he asked of others only as he himself freely gave.

"These qualities enabled him to multiply his public usefulness manyfold. No worthy endeavor found him indifferent and his active service and support were enlisted in innumerable movements for the public welfare, national as well as local. We of the Art Institute like to think, however, that the dominating interest, ambition and pride of his public life were in this institution, so largely the achievement of his energy and enthusiasm. His name is written in bronze on the tablet of our benefactors. It adorns the walls of one of our galleries, whose treasures he was instrumental in bringing here. It has been appropriately given to the new wing, the planning of which so greatly interested him. But above and beyond this recognition of his generosity and his services, the Art Institute itself will ever stand as a monument to his wisdom, his taste and his devotion.

"This tribute would be incomplete did not we, his fellow trustees, add an expression of the deep personal sorrow felt by each one of us in the loss of a valued friend, whose relations with us were always marked by cordial good will and unfailing kindness. It was a privilege and a joy to work with him, and our association with him will remain a tender memory."

Memorial services were held in Fullerton Hall on Wednesday, November 26, 1924. Martin A. Ryerson, Vice-President of the Art Institute, presided, and Dr. L. Ward Brigham delivered the invocation. Addresses were given by Dr. Ernest DeWitt Burton, president of the University of Chicago; Robert B. Harshé, Director of the Art Institute; Clifford W. Barnes, president of the Sunday Evening Club, and Lorado Taft, sculptor. The many public services rendered by Mr. Hutchinson were recalled.
