SUGGESTED FORMS OF BEQUESTS

I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, . . . (amounts or objects bequeathed or list of same) for such uses consistent with the purposes of the aforesaid corporation as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I direct that my executors, out of the remainder of my estate, shall set aside stocks, bonds and notes, or other securities of the value estimated by them to be sufficient to make the sum of . . . . . . dollars, which I hereby give and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, for uses consistent with its purposes as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, a corporation of the State of Illinois, . . . . . . dollars to be held and applied by the trustees thereof for the uses and purposes of that institution.

I give, devise and bequeath to the said The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, the lands, tenements and hereditaments aforesaid, the leases and all my interest therein and in the covenants therein contained and in the rents to accrue thereunder, and also the reversions in fee in the lands above described.

I direct that my executors shall from my general estate pay over in convenient installments to the trustees of The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, such amounts as shall equal . . . . . . dollars per annum for the period from the date of my death until the . . . . day of . . . . 19 . . . which amounts I give and bequeath to the aforesaid The Art Institute of Chicago to be received and applied by its Trustees.

The Trustees are deeply grateful to those who have already made gifts and bequests, and earnestly solicit all those wishing to aid and encourage the Art Institute in the great work which it is accomplishing with comparatively small resources, either to give or bequeath to it money or works of art of that high degree of excellence which is worthy of a great museum.
THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The charter was amended, taking effect on December 1, 1925, and now reads, "for the object to found, build, maintain and operate museums of fine arts, schools and libraries of art, design, and the drama, with authority to confer degrees and grant diplomas; to build, maintain and operate theaters, lecture halls, workshops and lunch rooms in connection therewith, and to carry on appropriate activities conducive to the artistic development of the community; to form, preserve and exhibit collections of objects of art of all kinds; to cultivate and extend the arts of design and the drama by any appropriate means; to provide lectures, instruction, and entertainments including dramatic, operatic and musical performances of all kinds, in furtherance of the general purposes of the Institute; to receive in trust property of all kinds and to exercise all necessary powers as trustees for such trust estates whose objects are in furtherance of the general powers of the Institute, or for the establishment or maintenance of works of art in the community."

The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from September 1 to May 31, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; to 5:30 from June 1 to August 31; Sundays from 12 to 8 p.m. from September 1 to May 31, to 9 p.m. from June 1 to August 31. Admission is free to members and their families and to school children of Illinois at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays. The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries are open free on week days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, also from 6 to 9 p.m., Sundays, 2 to 6 p.m.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, is under the same roof. So is the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theater, which has a separate entrance at the corner of Monroe and South Park Drive.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by the Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts), and to the use of the Ryerson Library.

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with the museum instructors.

The year 1926 has brought to the Art Institute of Chicago opportunity for wider service in the extension of its educational work. Helen F. Mackenzie, formerly instructor in the Department of Fine Arts of Ohio State University, has been appointed Curator of the Children's Museum. She has developed a program which includes temporary exhibitions of special interest to children, talks on Saturday mornings to children of members and talks each Sunday afternoon to junior museum visitors. The year's exhibitions of the Children's Museum include work by the Saturday morning classes in the Art Institute Art School, drawings and applied art by children in Chicago settlement houses, old valentines loaned by Mrs. Emma B. Hodge, illustrated books, toy animals and silhouettes. The large gallery has been divided by a latticed screen which, covered by plants and vines, forms a pleasing background to the Janet Scudder fountain. The Children's Museum, originally founded by a group of Women's Clubs through a committee of which Mrs. Leo Heller was the devoted chairman, is now supported by the Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester fund, supplemented by gifts from the same donors.

Dudley Crafts Watson, Extension Lecturer, has brought the Art Institute, its various activities and its collections before 313 women's clubs, settlements, foreign groups, working girls and high school assemblies, reaching in all 82,697 individuals, of whom a great number had never been inside the walls of the museum.

Lorado Taft has again contributed a series of Sunday lectures, covering the history of sculpture, speaking before large and appreciative audiences.

The Department of Museum Instruction shows an increase in attendance of sixteen per cent and an increase in receipts of forty-five per cent over last year.

The intensive summer course for college instructors in the Fine Arts was again made possible by a grant of $10,000 from the Carnegie Foundation.

The annual members of the Art Institute have used their privileges in the theater generously. In the year more than twenty-six thousand tickets at the members’ reduced prices have been sold.

We believe that excellent progress has been made by the Company, and that the list of plays given, while not equally popular, represents an important contribution, along both classical and experimental lines, to the art theater movement.

The Children’s Theater (Saturday Matinees), under the direction of Miss Muriel Brown, has had an excellent year. This important branch of the Studio has given twenty-eight performances and crowded houses have been the rule.

Interesting exhibitions of theater designs by Robert Edmond Jones, and of old play bills from Mr. Goodman's collection have been held in the exhibition gallery adjoining the main corridor.

The earnings of the theater have been appreciably larger than in the experimental budget estimate, but the expenses have been heavier also. Realizing the needs of this new and untried essay in the arts, Mr. and Mrs. William O. Goodman have established an endowment fund to which they have contributed $100,000.

The death of Howard Van Doren Shaw, a member of the Board of Trustees, we record with sorrow. Mr. Shaw, in addition to his services as chairman of the Decorative Arts and Burnham Library Committees, had been the architect of the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theater. To his very great ability, his devotion and his high ideals the Art Institute owes infinitely more than it is possible to compass in this brief summary.

Alfred E. Hamill and Julius Rosenwald have been elected Trustees to fill vacancies on the Board.

The following Benefactors have been added by vote of the Trustees: Adolphus C. Bartlett, Frederic Clay Bartlett, Helen L. Birch Bartlett, James Deering, Victor F. Lawson, Pauline Kohlsaat Palmer, William P. Tuttle and John H. Wrenn. Their names have been added to the bronze tablet in the entrance lobby which commemorates those whose gifts or benefactions reach a minimum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

The following Governing Members were elected during the year:

*Mrs. John Borden
*Chauncey B. Borland
A. A. Carpenter
Robert F. Carr
Rufus C. Dawes
*Calvin Fentress
C. J. Hambleton

*William S. Monroe
Charles H. Morse
F. F. Norcross
John W. O'Leary
Woodruff J. Parker
Charles B. Pike
*Lessing Rosenthal
Annual Members now number 8,625, Life Members 6,393, Sustaining Members, 191, Governing Members 247; 130 of the Governing Members are Governing Life Members. We now have a total membership in all classes of 15,461, a gain of 915 members. The Life Membership Endowment Fund now totals $809,347.50, an increase of $99,795.50 in 1926.

The total attendance during the year was 831,186, an increase of 42,110 over the preceding year.

The following appointments to the staff have been made: E. W. Rannells, as Assistant Dean of the Art Institute Art School, Helen F. Mackenzie, Curator of the Children's Museum, Katherine Hitt, reference department, Ryerson Library. New instructors in the Art Institute Art School include Emory Todd in metal work and jewelry, Innie Arfsten in weaving, Margaret Artingstall in design, Kathleen Blackshear in survey of art. The following part time instructors have also been added to the School faculty: Douglas Hall, Francis Chapin, William Ernest Ross, Benjamin Beck, Mrs. Leona McGill and Frank Naebor.

Hardinge Scholle, Assistant Curator of Decorative Arts, resigned to accept the Directorship of the Museum of the City of New York. Howard Morse, Evening School Registrar, was the recipient of a Carnegie Scholarship. He is spending the year in making an intensive study of European Art Schools.

Four thousand one hundred and fifty-eight students attended the summer, day, evening and Saturday classes in the Art Institute Art School. Competitive entrance examinations were held to determine the ability of candidates for the Freshman Class in the Art School proper as well as in the Dramatic Department of the Theater. The degree of Bachelor of Art

* New Governing Life Members.
Education offered by the Teacher Training Department of the Art School has given great impetus to this department. The degree has been accepted by many schools and its recipients without exception have been elected to excellent positions as supervisors of grade and high schools or as instructors in normal schools and colleges. During the summer the ventilating system of the School was greatly improved and a study room for the teaching staff constructed in the Mather Addition.

The Scholarships have been materially increased by the maturing of the Roswell A. Peters and Ella Peters Cole competitive scholarships of $20,000; new scholarships were given or bequeathed by Wilhelmine F. Coolbaugh ($6,000); Hattie Rubens ($1,000); Anna Page Scott ($3,500); with notable increases in the Chicago Woman's Club Fund and the Edward B. Butler students' aid funds.

Gallery handbooks, mimeographed and bound, have been completed for the early paintings in the Martin A. Ryerson Loan Collection, and for the W. W. Kimball Collection. A catalogue of the Helen L. Birch Bartlett Memorial Collection of Modern Paintings has been published through the generosity of Frederic C. Bartlett, and other catalogues and handbooks are in preparation.

Three hundred and two lectures were given in Fullerton Hall to 78,596 members and visitors.

The Alonzo C. Mather Addition was completed on September 1. Here we have already installed a completely equipped paint shop, a study room for instructors in the Art School, a large storage for paintings and an extension to the restaurant. The wood walks in the attic spaces over the painting galleries were, in part, replaced by steel. This change will be completed during the coming year, thus reducing fire risks to a minimum. Five galleries in Hutchinson Wing have been laid with herringbone oak flooring, the gift of Robert Allerton.

Over 118,000 readers have been served by Ryerson and Burnham Libraries during the year and 80,000 lantern slides and photographs have been loaned. Martin A. Ryerson contributed $3,000 toward the purchase of books, $1,000 of which was used to secure an important collection of Japanese books formed by the late Louise Norton Brown. Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne presented 268 rare volumes, John C. Cebrian continued his gifts of works on Spanish art, and the late Howard Van Doren Shaw bequeathed his entire architectural library with the exception of those works which were already included in the Burnham Library.

One of the most notable acquisitions made by the Art Institute in recent years was the group of twenty-four modern paintings given by Frederic C. Bartlett, to be known as the Helen Birch Bartlett Memorial Collection. The collection includes four important works by Van Gogh, three by Hodler, three by Derain, two by Matisse, Gauguin's "Mahana no Atua," Henri Rousseau's "La Cascade" and the outstanding masterpieces "Sunday afternoon on La Grande Jatte" and a famous still life by Cézanne. Emile Othon Friesz, André Lhote, Amadeo Modigliani, Pablo Picasso, Maurice Utrillo and Dunoyer de Segonzac are also importantly represented.

From the Alexander A. McKay Fund a painting by William Hogarth of the marine artist Monamy and a School of Avignon "Deposition" were purchased for the Munger Collection. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus McCormick, Jr., gave a portrait of John Galsworthy by Randall Davey, Woodruff J. Parker an "Interior with Nudes" by Zorn, Mary Otis Jenkins "Renganeschi's Saturday Night" by John Sloan. Edward B. Butler added to his Inness collection an early figure study "The Sisters in the Garden." Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne gave a study by Augustus John, "Bundle of Lavender" and three paintings by Arthur B. Davies, "Leda," "Youth," and "Summer and the Mother Hearted." From the Charles S. Peterson Foundation a water color by Carl Larsson, "Lie-abed's Sad Breakfast" and a bronze bust, "Laplander" by Christian Erickson were presented. "The Sun Vow" by Hermon A. MacNeil came to us by the bequest of Howard Shaw and a head of Mr. Shaw by Albin Polasek was presented by Mrs. Shaw. Three water colors by Charles Conder were given by Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne; the "Little Tree, Maine," by John Marin was purchased from the Mead Fund and "Sails and Nets" by John Norton was purchased from the Wirt D. Walker Fund.

The Department of Oriental Art has received a monumental Chinese Buddhist Stele of the Wei Dynasty purchased in part by members of the Orientals and in part by Russell Tyson who made a contribution of $3,000 toward this important acquisition. Three Japanese paintings of the Tosa School were given by Martin A. Ryerson; four Chinese paintings, twelve Chinese and Tibetan bronzes, twenty-two batiks, twelve Indo-Persian miniatures by Guy H. Mitchell; nine pieces of Persian brocades by Charles A. Stevens and Brothers; two Mohammedan bronzes by Mrs. Noble B. Judah. To the Buckingham collection a tower shaped ceremonial jar of Lung Chüan Celadon of the Sung Dynasty has been added as well as an important Chün Yao jardiniere, six pieces of T'ang pottery and eleven bronzes. Additions to the Clarence L. Buckingham collection of Japanese Prints include excellent color prints by Utamaro, Harunobu, Hiroshige, Shigenaga and Eishi. Two carpets of great importance were given by Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne, a nomadic Shiraz which may be dated between 1600 and 1750 and an unique rug from the Eastern Caucasus probably sixteenth century in period. The collection of Moroccan Art mentioned in last year’s report, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Marx, has been installed in Gallery H 10. The Mary Jane Gunsaulus collection of Persian Pottery was removed to Gallery H 9.

The Classical Department has received a Greek mask carved from rock crystal and two Roman sarcophagi from Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne, a third century Greek torso of Praxitelian type purchased for the R. A. Waller Memorial and an archaic Cypriote head purchased for the R. A. Waller Memorial.

The large and varied gifts of Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne have alone made the year a memorable one. In the Department of Decorative Arts they include no less than one hundred examples of European and American furniture, two hundred and six textiles, one hundred and thirty-six pieces of glass and pottery, thirty-two types of jewelry and metal work, fifty-one pieces of iron work, two Gothic reliefs and miscellaneous items. The Antiquarian Society have presented carvings from an overmantel by Grinling Gibbons, a Queen Anne embroidered panel and two Queen Anne chairs. Through the Society gifts of a table set of Bristol glass have been made by Mrs. Charles Schweppe, a coverlet, a Coalport dish and spun glass boat by Mrs. Potter Palmer and a pair of Spanish 15th Century gold earrings and two Mayan gold pendants by Mrs. Frank G. Logan. Robert Allerton has continued his generous gifts to the Department with seven 18th Century cotton prints, seventeen pieces of old lace from the Mrs. S. W. Allerton Collection, five pieces of English, Austrian and Italian Renaissance furniture, a Queen Anne 18th Century coat, an American Colonial needlework picture and a French needlework rug. His gifts also include hardwood floor laid in herringbone pattern in Galleries H 16, H 18, H 18a, H 18b, H 18c and a partition wall in Gallery H 18. He has announced a further gift of $25,000 for the erection of a gallery to be known as the Agnes Allerton Gallery of Textiles and a fund of $25,000 for its maintenance. Gowns for the Costume Collection have been given by Mrs. Potter Palmer, Mrs. William Bentley Walker, Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson, the late Mrs. Russell Tyson and Mrs. Charles L. Hutchinson. David Adler has presented a vase of Irish glass, Mrs. Studebaker Fish three wallpaper panels, Mrs. Martin Schuetze a salad fork and spoon by Warren Wheelock, Richard T. Crane a modern lock of Gothic design by Koralewsky, William Quigley two Queen Anne chairs, an 18th Century needlework bag and an 18th Century print “The Ascension.” Russell Tyson and Arthur T. Aldis have added a pottery vase by R. Buthaud and two metal vases by Jean Dunand to their collection of modern decorative art. Miss Kate Buckingham has added two pieces to the Lucy Maud Buckingham Collection of Lustre. She has also added to the Lucy Maud Buckingham Collection a Spanish crucifix of the 13th Century and two French tomb figures of Gothic Art of the 15th Century, and a court cupboard of the 15th Century.

The Department of Prints and Drawings has received seventeen drawings from Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne including work by Beerbohm, Craig, Gauguin, John, Matisse and Rothenstein, eight from Robert Allerton, including works by Craig, Féret, Hodler, Pruna and Seurat, two by Domenico Tiepolo from Mr. and Mrs. Francis Neilson. From the Print and Drawing Club seventy-six prints have been received, from Mrs. Charles Netcher eight aquatints and color engravings by Janinet, Westfall and Knight and four volumes with illustrations by Rowlandson, Pugin, Sutherland and Havell; from Mr. and Mrs.
Potter Palmer sixty-five prints, additions to their little Masters Collection, by Altdorfer, Beham, Binck, Collaert and Hollar. Mrs. Albert Roullier and Miss Alice Roullier have added to the Albert Roullier Memorial Collection seventeen prints by Bernard, Cézanne, Cottet, Fauconnet, Frelaut, Gauguin, Laboureur, Lunois, Maillol, Matisse, Maurin and Renoir. Mrs. Albert H. Wolf has given twenty-three prints by Pennell, MacLaughlan, Webster and others. Charles H. Worcester has given six lithographs by George Bellows, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neilson four lithographs by Charlet and three by Géricault, George F. Porter nine prints by Bellows, Delacroix, Raffaelli, Sloan and others. Mrs. John H. Hardin has given twenty-five prints by George O. Hart, Robert Allerton five woodcuts by Gordon Craig, four theatrical prints by Woodfall and four Audubon birds by Hanell. Walter S. Brewster has given fourteen etchings by Rodolphe Bresdin and war posters, C. J. Hambleton two aquatints by Alix, William V. Kelley an etching by Muirhead Bone, Edward C. Crossett an etching by Chahine, and Mrs. John A. Carpenter a lithograph by Matisse. Purchases include one hundred and fourteen French 18th Century Line Engravings and four lithographs by Ingres, nineteen etchings from the Albert Wolf Fund, and six aquatints in color by Descourtis from the Fair Fund.

Various books for the Print Library have been added by Horace S. Oakley, by the Print and Drawing Club and by Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne. By the sale of etchings by Meryon and Whistler (part of the Ethel Wrenn and John H. Wrenn bequests) which duplicated prints already in our collection, the sum of $25,000 was realized. This now becomes the John H. Wrenn Memorial Fund and purchases made from it will be known as the John H. Wrenn Memorial Collection.

Seventy-six exhibitions of a temporary nature were held in the various departments of the Museum. The most notable exhibitions of the year, in addition to the Annual Water Color, Chicago and American Exhibitions, were the International Exhibition of Decorative Arts, selected from the Paris Exposition des Arts Décoratifs, the Sculpture of Mestrovic and Maillol, a memorial exhibition of paintings and prints by Mary Cassatt and a survey of recent accessions in the Department of Prints. The Oriental Department showed the development of Mohammedian Art and the Antiquarians exhibited masterpieces of needlework. The Arts Club continued their exhibitions of modern art and the Art School held a series of temporary exhibitions of especial interest to the student body.

Works of art recently acquired by the Art Institute together with an occasional object which is desired for acquisition are now being shown for an exhibition period of three months in Gallery 4.

The staff and the Architectural Committee are jointly preparing a plan for future extension. It is obvious that a general plan once adopted by the Trustees will lead to better physical relationships between departments and more logical sequences within departmental areas.

The funds of the Art Institute in which the income is restricted have been increased by the James Nelson Raymond Public School and Children's Lecture Fund of $200,000 given by Mrs. Anna L. Raymond, which remains on an annuity basis until the death of the donor, the Emily Crane Chadbourne Endowment of $45,000 of which the income is to be used for installation in the Department of Decorative Arts and the John Barton Payne Fund of $18,253.74 to be used for the decoration of buildings within the South Park area. Realizing the need for more adequate honoraria for curatorial experts, Mrs. Potter Palmer has founded the Pauline K. Palmer Endowment of $25,000 and George F. Porter a fund of $15,000, the income of which will be used to assist in meeting this need. Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan have increased their fund which is used to provide medals and prizes for artists in the various annual exhibitions by the sum of $20,500. Funds, unrestricted as to income, of $100,000, of $44,000 and of $10,000 were bequeathed by the late Victor F. Lawson, William P. Tuttle and Frederic Ives Carpenter. Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne added to her former greatly appreciated benefactions the sum of $17,750 to be used for general upkeep and maintenance.

The growth of the Art Institute both in collections and in buildings has been, in the last five years, worthy of remark, when it is considered that this growth has taken place without adequate endowment or purchase funds. Objects whose collective valuation would be conservatively estimated at four millions of dollars have been acquired and building operations entailing the expenditure of two millions of dollars have been undertaken. As gallery space and collections are added there has been a corresponding increase in maintenance costs with no proportionate increase in maintenance funds. While, for instance, our funds have been increased during the past year by $900,000, more than half of this amount brings with it increased responsibilities and expenses, since these endowments and funds are, in the main, to be expended for acquisitions with no supplementary amounts to be applied for their care, installation or upkeep. There is therefore a risk that the museum may eventually become bankrupt through the generosity of its friends, unless the future brings with it benefactions more fluid in application. The greatest needs of our institution may be summarized under the following headings: an adequate ventilating system, an increased endowment of five millions of dollars, funds for purchases, for the publications of handbooks and catalogues, for the completion of the unsightly entrance lobby and for the enlargement of Ryerson and Burnham Libraries.
