THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The charter was amended, taking effect on December 1, 1925, and now reads, "for the object to found, build, maintain and operate museums of fine arts, schools and libraries of art, design, and the drama, with authority to confer degrees and grant diplomas; to build, maintain and operate theaters, lecture halls, workshops and lunch rooms in connection therewith, and to carry on appropriate activities conducive to the artistic development of the community; to form, preserve and exhibit collections of objects of art of all kinds; to cultivate and extend the arts of design and the drama by any appropriate means; to provide lectures, instruction, and entertainments including dramatic, operatic and musical performances of all kinds, in furtherance of the general purposes of the Institute; to receive in trust property of all kinds and to exercise all necessary powers as trustees for such trust estates whose objects are in furtherance of the general powers of the Institute, or for the establishment or maintenance of works of art in the community."

The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from September 1 to May 31, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; to 5:30 from June 1 to August 31; Sundays from 12 to 8 p.m. from September 1 to May 31, to 9 p.m. from June 1 to August 31. Admission is free to members and their families and to school children of Illinois at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays. The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries are open free on week days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays also from 6 to 9 p.m., Sundays, 2 to 6 p.m.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, is under the same roof. So is the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theater, which has a separate entrance at the corner of Monroe and South Park Drive.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by The Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts), and to the use of the Ryerson Library.

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with the museum instructors.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE

To the Governing Members of The Art Institute of Chicago:

The year ending December 31, 1927, has brought to The Art Institute many important acquisitions, with increase in membership and increase in quantity and quality of service to the people of Chicago. The Trustees, however, are not content with what may be called an accretionary museum which, now under way, seems to move forward under its own power, gaining somewhat in impetus and girth, but wabbling perhaps from time to time in direction. They feel that they should plan not for today nor tomorrow, but for the titanic city which inevitably will arise at the southern tip of Lake Michigan.

The growth of The Art Institute Collections has crowded our storages with objects which should be installed, but we lack the space for new installation and the funds for additional building. This crowded condition has been somewhat relieved by the erection of the Agnes W. Allerton Wing, the gift of Robert Allerton in memory of his mother. In this series of galleries the Museum’s Collection of Occidental Textiles will be housed, as well as the textiles presented to the Museum by the newly organized Needlework and Textile Guild. A further relief has come in the occupation of six galleries to the south of the Alexander McKinlock, Jr., Memorial Court by the Department of Decorative Arts. The four galleries made vacant by the removal of the Antiquarian Collections and the Ryerson Room of Textile Fragments make possible the expansion of the Oriental Department and the installation of many important objects not hitherto exhibited. The congestion in The Art Institute Art School has been greatly alleviated by the construction of fourteen classrooms linking the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theater with the Alexander McKinlock, Jr., Memorial Court. Classroom 106 has been added to the Carpenter Shop, giving to the Museum a sadly needed space for assembling room and cabinet shop. The growth of Ryerson Library and its intensive use by students and public has demanded a very necessary expansion into the area occupied by the Burnham Library. This change was made possible by a gift from Martin A. Ryerson of $5,000. The expense incurred by the removal of Burnham Library has been met, in part, by contributions of $1,000 each from Frank G. Logan, Walter S. Brewster, and Alfred E. Hamill. The Department of Museum Instruction has been moved from its former location to a gallery adjoining the Children's Museum, where its use by classes of children has been simplified. This department has held 646 classes and lectures during the year, reaching 7,794 children and 8,036 adults. The foundation established by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester has maintained the Children's Museum which has held nine exhibitions of especial interest to children, with an attendance of 216,102. The most important acquisition of the year in this department was the gift by Lorado Taft of a small scale model of the Pisano doors with several Florentine sculptors, including Ghiberti, Brunelleschi, Donatello and Jacopo della Quercia examining them with keen interest. The whole group is like a vivid scene in a 15th century drama. Lorado Taft has again presented to large audiences the generous gift of Free Sunday Lectures. Visitors to Fullerton Hall Lectures numbered 124,502.

Through the generous gift of $10,000 to the James Nelson Raymond Public School and Children's Lecture Fund, established by Mrs. Anna Louise Raymond, The Art Institute was enabled to give courses for children of members, Scholarship courses for public school pupils and Friday Sketch Classes, all of which were conducted in Fullerton Hall; and lectures for children and Parent-Teachers Associations given in the Public School Auditoriums. In all 43,287 children heard these lectures, which were delivered by Dudley Crafts Watson. Four thousand dollars was applied to this purpose during 1927, and an additional gift of $2,000 from Mrs. Raymond permitted an appropriation for the same purpose of $4,000 in 1928. The balance of $2,000 a year each is to be applied in 1929 and 1930. Mrs. Raymond’s benefactions under this head totaled $12,000 in 1927.

The enrollment of The Art Institute Art School during the year 1927-28 totaled 4,515. Charles Fabens Kelley has been serving as Acting Dean, taking the place of Dean Raymond P. Ensign, who resigned in June, 1927. Emil Zettler was added to the faculty of the enlarged Department of Sculpture and Alfonso Iannelli appointed head of the newly created Department of Design. The emphasis in the school has been increasingly in the direction of more professional standards. To this end the establishment of a graduate atelier, with visiting instructors selected from the most effective teachers among American artists, has largely contributed.

Thirty-seven thousand six hundred tickets to performances at the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theater were purchased at reduced rates by members of The Art Institute during 1927. Classics and old repertory plays presented were: “Twelfth Night,” “As You Like It,” “Midsummer Night’s Dream,” “She Stoops to Conquer,” “The Tower of Nesle,” and “Fashion.” “The Pigeon” and “Penelope” among standard modern plays, and the new plays “Juno and the Paycock” and “Outbreak” were given by the Repertory Company. Thirty-six children’s plays and studio productions were given to thousands of delighted children. There is a growing interest in the theater as a part of The Art Institute program, and its value is shown not only as an educational influence but as a means for increasing our annual membership. This increase amounted to 1,864 members in the various classes during 1927 with a net increase in receipts of $7,223.48. The Life Membership Endowment Fund was increased by $112,125, amounting to $921,372. There are now 237 Governing Members and the Membership in all classes amounts to 17,325. The net receipts of the Department total $131,219.82. The extraordinary success of this Department is due wholly to the great energy and constructive ability of Guy U. Young, the manager, and his assistants. With regret we have acceded to his request for a leave of absence beginning in January, 1928.

Various departments of the Museum operate at a profit: the Paint, Carpenter and Photographic Shops earn about $15,000, the Reproductions and Postcards about $10,000, and the Restaurant about $10,000. The Mather Tea Room, made possible by the gift of Alonzo C. Mather, was opened to the public in September. Smoking is permitted in this new tea room, where dainty luncheons are served.

Among the seventy-five temporary exhibitions held during the year, in addition to the regular Annual Exhibitions by the Artists of Chicago; the Chicago Society of Etchers; the International Water Color Exhibition; the Chicago Architectural Exhibition; the Annual American Exhibition of Paintings and Sculpture, the following were of especial significance: Fifteenth and Sixteenth Century Woodcuts, lent by Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer; English Color Illustrations, lent by Mrs. James Ward Thorne; Drypoints by Edgar Chahine, lent by Edward Crossett, Elizabeth Telling and Mrs. Henry Elliott; Swedish Decorative Arts; Sculpture by Paul Manship; Paintings from the Carnegie Institute International Exhibition; Loan Exhibition of 16th and 17th Century Paintings owned in Chicago; Foreign Illustrated Books for children.

The Arts Club Exhibitions, which have done so much to acquaint our members with various phases of Modern Art, we regret to state, have been discontinued. This club, which, years ago, may have been organized as a protest against the conservative policy of The Art Institute, has ended in becoming our stanch friend and ally.

Noteworthy acquisitions during the past year in the Department of Prints and Drawings include the Collection of Etchings by Anders Zorn formed by the late Charles Deering and presented to The Art Institute by his daughters, Mrs. Chauncey McCormick and Mrs. Richard Ely Danielson. It has been amalgamated with the Wallace L. DeWolf Collection, and will be known hereafter as the Wallace L. DeWolf and Charles Deering Collections, giving to The Art Institute the most comprehensive and complete group of the Swedish master’s work known. Charles F. Glore has presented 92 lithographs by Toulouse-Lautrec; Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne 24 etchings and drypoints by Arthur Davies; Mrs. Charles Netcher color prints by Boydell, Demarteau, Marin, and mezzotints by Lasinio, Charles Turner and William Say; Robert Allerton drawings by Foujita, Van Gogh and Weisgerber; Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan through the Logan Purchase Prizes, etchings by Rosenberg, Osborne and Sewell; Miss Clara Culver Gilbert mezzotints by Boydell, Van Somer and Haefsten, and a lithograph by Legros; Alfred E. Hamill chiaroscuro prints by Goltzius and woodcuts by Svabinsky; Walter S. Brewster four etchings by Bresdin.

To the Department of Oriental Art has been added a collection of Muhammadan pottery, tiles, metal-work, textiles, lacquer, stone and stucco carving and manuscript leaves, the gift of Frank G. Logan, Henry J. Patten and Martin A. Ryerson; 18 pieces of 17th and 18th Century Persian Glass, the gift of Mrs. Charles H. Schweppe. Martin A. Ryerson has given a collection of 147 Japanese textile fragments; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Mandel two Tibetan Paintings; Sarkis H. Nahigian a 16th Century Persian Rug; Alfred E. Hamill two Chinese lacquer chairs. Miss Kate S. Buckingham has made several notable additions of monumental Chinese bronzes to the Buckingham Collection, some unusually fine Chinese silver pieces and a superlative pottery model of a Han house.
The Orientals presented eleven textiles and published an important monograph: "A Chinese Buddhist Stele of the Wei Dynasty."

The Department of Decorative Arts has received from Miss Elizabeth McCormick a large and comprehensive collection of textiles; from Robert Allerton glass, textiles, wall paper and furniture. Of especial importance was the gift by Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rosenwald of 366 pieces of Continental Glass ranging from the Gothic Period to the 18th century. This collection formed one-half of the celebrated Muehsam Collection, the other half having been acquired by the Metropolitan Museum of Art. A French 15th century Gothic stone figure of notable quality came to the Department by gift, the Saint Syra, presented by Mrs. Francis Neilson. A superlative needlework altarpiece, hanging formerly in Burgos Cathedral, was presented by Mrs. Chauncey McCormick and Mrs. Richard Ely Danielson.

The Department of Paintings and Sculpture has received a plaster cast of the "Moses" by Ivan Mestrovic as a gift from David Adler, Jr. By the bequest of the late George F. Porter, a group of bronzes by Jane Poupelet and Gleb Derujinsky, as well as paintings by Lavery, Davies and Hodler were received. "A Summer Day" by John E. Costigan and "Old Farm Hand" by James Chapin were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan through the Logan Purchase Prizes. The Friends of American Art gave "Music" by Thomas Eakins; Frederic C. Bartlett gave "Tahitian Woman and Children" by Gauguin to the Birch-Bartlett Collection; to the Charles H. Worcester Loan Collection the "Portrait of Lodovico Madruzzi" by Moroni was added. Robert Allerton added a water color by Picasso to the large collection already presented by him to the Museum.

The Trustees feel that The Art Institute should not only maintain a high standard in its acquisitions, but should also assist Chicago collectors to acquire objects of museum quality. During the past year the director and staff have purchased or assisted in the purchase of a great number of art objects of which many will eventually be presented to the Museum. The monetary value of these objects is in excess of five hundred thousand dollars.

Visitors to The Art Institute during the past year numbered 1,074,481, an increase of 39,512. Readers in Ryerson and Burnham Libraries numbered 124,741. The total number of volumes in these libraries now amounts to 26,668. An important addition to the Burnham Library was made in the purchase of 443 volumes, forming the library of Pierre François Léonard Fontaine, Napoleon's official architect. Subscriptions toward the purchase from architects and friends of the library have been received to the amount of $2,540. For the purchase of books Martin A. Ryerson has again donated $2,000, and a group of ten friends, represented by Mrs. Frederick D. Silber, gave $150 as a memorial to Mrs. Elysabeth Underhill. Important gifts of books were made by Martin A. Ryerson, J. C. Cebrian, Miss Alice Getty, Augustus Peabody, Charles R. Crane and Alfred E. Hamill.

Additional bequests to The Art Institute during the past year include the unrestricted Wm. N. Eisendrath Fund of $5,000, the unrestricted bequest of the late Ernest A. Hamill of $30,000, and the addition of $56,208.42 to the Wm. P. Tuttle Fund, as well as the unrestricted bequest of the late Edward H. Valentine of $5,000; the bequest of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Ward of $10,000, of which the income is restricted to the use of the Art School. Scholarship funds include the Riordan-Morey Fund, given by C. R. Morey in memory of his mother, of $3,840; an increase to the Dearborn Seminary Scholarship Fund of $1,500. The Renaissance Scholarship Fund was started with $500 and the Chicago Woman's Club Fund increased by $731. Mrs. Wentworth Greene Field has established the Wentworth Greene Field Memorial Fund of $12,000, the income of which is to be used for Museum purchases; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Chalmers have made the first payment of $1,000 on an unrestricted fund of $10,000. The income of the Hannan Fund of $1,000 is to be used for the purchase of prints and the income of the Mary G. and Sylvanus B. Cochran Fund of $2,500 is to be used for the purchase of art objects. Frederic C. Bartlett gave the sum of $20,000, the income of which is to be used in the maintenance of the Birch-Bartlett Collection. Of especial value was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester of $8,700, which permits the fitting out of a second picture storage with movable screens, enlargement of the women’s rest room, automatic sprinkler system for the print shop, and other needed physical improvements. The total increase in endowment funds during the year amounted to $356,177.81.

The Trustees lament the loss from their number of Edward E. Ayer and George F. Porter; from the Governing Life Members of the following: Ernest A. Hamill, Charles Deering, Wallace Heckman, Martin Roche, John R. Thompson, Ralph Van Vechten, Frank D. Stout; from the Governing Members the following: Ambrose Cramer, Charles T. Trego, Alfred Landon Baker, William Dickinson, John J. Mitchell, Mrs. John J. Mitchell. Charles F. Glore was elected Trustee to fill a vacancy on the Board. New Governing Members elected are: Mrs. Clyde M. Carr, Mrs. Hubbard Carpenter, Mrs. Ogden T. McClurg, Max Epstein, George Woodruff and Harry A. Wheeler.

It is with some pride that the Director and Business Manager present a balanced budget for the operation of the Museum during 1927, but the accomplishment of this result has been at the expense of the physical equipment and appearance of the Museum and the restriction of salary increases. The purchasing funds of The Art Institute are, comparatively speaking, non-existent when contrasted with the purchasing funds of the art museums of Kansas City, St. Louis, Detroit, Cleveland, Minneapolis, Toledo, Boston, Providence and New York. We cannot compete with these institutions unless the citizens of Chicago give us adequate support commensurate with the support given to the hospitals and libraries of the city, to Northwestern University, the University of Chicago, and to the Field Museum. An endowment of ten millions of dollars is necessary if we would keep pace with rival museums in other cities and maintain an even footing with the established institutions of Chicago.
