The Art Institute of Chicago was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The charter was amended, taking effect on December 1, 1925, and now reads, "for the object to found, build, maintain and operate museums of fine arts, schools and libraries of art, design, and the drama, with authority to confer degrees and grant diplomas; to build, maintain and operate theatres, lecture halls, workshops and lunch rooms in connection therewith, and to carry on appropriate activities conducive to the artistic development of the community; to form, preserve and exhibit collections of objects of art of all kinds; to cultivate and extend the arts of design and the drama by any appropriate means; to provide lectures, instruction, and entertainments including dramatic, operatic and musical performances of all kinds, in furtherance of the general purposes of the Institute; to receive in trust property of all kinds and to exercise all necessary powers as trustees for such trust estates whose objects are in furtherance of the general powers of the Institute, or for the establishment or maintenance of works of art in the community."

The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from September 1 to May 31, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; to 5:30 from June 1 to August 31; Sundays from 12 to 8 p.m. from September 1 to May 31, to 9 p.m. from June 1 to August 31. Admission is free to members and their families and to school children of Illinois at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays. The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries are open free on week days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays also from 6 to 9 p.m.

The art school, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, together with the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theatre, is under the same roof. The latter has a separate entrance at Monroe Street and South Park Drive.

All members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to the use of the Ryerson and Burnham Libraries as well as to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by The Art Institute (excepting the Sunday concerts).

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with museum instructors.

In last year's annual report the Trustees had the temerity to announce to the Governing Members that the Fine Arts Exhibition undertaken by the Art Institute of Chicago for A Century of Progress Exposition would surpass any exhibition yet held in America. This prediction has been verified with gratifying unanimity by American and foreign critics and connoisseurs. During the five months of the exhibition 1,538,103 visitors passed through our doors. On October 31 attendance figures reached a total of 44,432 which is, we believe, unprecedented in any museum either in America or abroad. The complete daily attendance for the year amounted to 2,050,604. It is too early to estimate the importance of this exhibition which accentuated the status of American culture as shown in its collections and which emphasized the educational value of art through admirable catalogs and a corps of devoted lecturers. Chicago can never be sufficiently grateful to the Trustees of this institution who, in a period of real financial stress, carried through this great exhibition to a successful conclusion. In no less degree we are grateful to the two hundred and fifty American collectors and the forty-two museums whose generosity made possible this truly national movement. Already as a result of this exhibition the donors of collections of paintings or their executors have agreed to permit the Art Institute to arrange these collections in a sequential manner as an experiment. This unselfish decision has met with unanimous approval from press and public. At once the Art Institute takes a step in advance, the importance of which cannot be exaggerated, emerging from its provincial status to the plane of such museums as the Prado, the Kaiser-Friedrich, the National Gallery, where this wise policy has long been enforced.

The Membership Department reports a total membership of 13,368, a gain of 19 for the year.

The Goodman Theatre offered 14 plays, six of which were free to members, to a total attendance of 23,500. Students in the School of the Drama number 98.

Important accessions to the Department of Painting and Sculpture include “The Nativity” by Albrecht Alt dorfer, purchased from the W. L. Mead fund; “St. George and the Dragon” by the Master of St. George, one of the greatest masterpieces of early Spanish painting, the gift of Mrs. R. E. Danielson and Mrs. Chauncey McCormick; a notable “Madonna and Child” by Giovanni Bellini, added to the collection presented by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Worcester; “Pink House” by Francis Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan Purchase Prize; “Americans in Dachau” by J. Frank Currier, purchased from the Samuel P. Avery fund, and a sketch for the “Piazza Navona, Rome” by Giovanni Paolo Pannini.

Our collections of water colors were enriched by “Lady and Child on a Terrace at Meudon” by Berthe Morisot, added to the Charles Netcher II Memorial by Mrs. Netcher; “The Wrestlers” by Kees Van Dongen, the gift of Carter H. Harrison; “The Yonne at Auxerre” by Muirhead Bone, “The Sound of Mull” by Donald Y. Cameron; and “Windmills, Veere” by James McBey, the gift of H. R. Warner.

A bronze bust, “Gabrielle Soene” by Jacob Epstein, was presented by Stevenson Scott and a Benin bronze relief of a Warrior was purchased from the Avery Fund.

A most important gift of Whistleriana comprising books, prints and paintings (supplementing the Whistler collection already presented to the Department of Prints and Drawings) was made by Walter S. Brewster. The Department of Painting and Sculpture has received the oil paintings: "Coast Scene, Bathers" and the "Portrait of a Young Girl," the water color "Chelsea Shop," a gouache "Venetian Atmosphere" and a pastel "Study for the Portrait of Mrs. Huth." These charming paintings by James McNeill Whistler show the exquisite and delicate phase of this great American master's work, not seen before in our collections.

The Annual Report for 1932 illustrated outstanding examples in the Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Coburn Collection of Impressionist Paintings and mentioned the bequest of Martin A. Ryerson. Both these collections, however, were accessioned during the current year. The objects from the Ryerson bequest, to be known as the Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson Collection, are divided among the Departments of Painting and Sculpture, Prints and Drawings, Classical, Oriental and Decorative Arts. Since the January number of the Bulletin gave a detailed account of the bequest emphasizing its very great importance to the Art Institute and since an adequate appreciation of this monumental collection would require more space than it is possible to give it in what necessarily must be a brief summary of the year's work, we must content ourselves with the acquisition lists printed elsewhere and with a few illustrations of especially noteworthy works.

The Department of Prints and Drawings has received from Walter S. Brewster a monumental collection of Whistleriana consisting of books, pamphlets and 270 prints, drawings and canceled plates. Of particular interest to the Print Collection is the presentation set of impressions from the ten plates that Whistler etched in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the reign of Queen Victoria, in the original portfolio bearing the royal crest and the legend: "Her Majesty's Fleet at Spithead 1887." The twenty-six canceled copper plates of Whistler's second Venetian Set, previously a loan, are included in this important gift. Hon. Carter H. Harrison presented a collection of French drawings which include “Une Bretonne” by Gauguin, three works by Toulouse-Lautrec, “Madame Bernier de l’Opéra” by Forain, “La Liseuse” by La Fresnaye and sketches and prints by Capon, Daurier, Lhôte, Monet, Redon, Van Dongen, Vergé-Sarrat, Corinth, Liebermann, Slevogt, as well as an artist’s proof of the lithograph “Scène de Cabinet Particulier” by Forain. We are indebted to H. R. Warner of Santa Barbara for excellent impressions of etchings by Bone, Cameron, Holden, Lepère, McBey, Palmer, and Whistler.

The Print and Drawing Club presented the four original lithographic zinc plates by Toulouse-Lautrec for “Au Concert,” an important acquisition to show the processes involved in color lithography. Robert Allerton added two drawings by Thomas Handforth to the large group already presented by him. By purchase the “Woman Lying in a Landscape” by Giulio Campagnola was acquired for the John H. Wrenn Memorial. To the Clarence Buckingham Collection were added: “Christ Carried to the Tomb,” an etching by Rembrandt, and the following engravings: Lucas van Leyden “Jephtha’s Daughter Going Forth to Meet Her Father,” two by Jean Duvet, “A King Receiving a Present from a Huntsman” and “A King Pursued by a Unicorn,” and “The Grand Ball” by Master M. Z. In memory of her husband, Charles Netcher II, Mrs. Netcher presented a portrait drawing of Benjamin Franklin by Fragonard in 1778 and the engraving “Mother and Child” by Mantegna.

The Department is again indebted to Mrs. Duncan Hodges for volunteer assistance.

Exhibitions held by the Department during the year include Etchings and Lithographs by “Pop” Hart and the Century of Progress Exhibition of Prints.

The Department of Oriental Art has received the following additions to the Clarence Buckingham Collection:
twenty-six Japanese prints by various artists and four Japanese paintings, a pair of kakemono; "Salt Water Carriers" by Chobunsai Eishi, "A Beauty" by Miyagawa Choshun and "Kanzan and Jittoku" by Tsunemasa. H. R. Warner has continued his benefactions to this department by the gift of two bronzes of the Ming dynasty, a porcelain five-color bowl, a lacquer box (cinnabar), a Japanese bronze vase and three pieces of lacquer. Martha K. Debevoise presented fragments of a 9th century bowl, Samarra type; two Muhammadan pottery jugs were given by Frank G. Logan. Two Indian paintings of the Kangra school were acquired, one as an anonymous gift—the second by the bequest of Adelaide E. Wheeler.

The Institute has been particularly fortunate this year in building a background for a collection of Japanese paintings through the friendly coöperation of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. We were able to secure about fifty paintings, mostly of the Kyoto school, purchased from the Nickerson fund.

Important exhibitions arranged by the Department include a Loan exhibition of Muhammadan Miniatures and Calligraphy, Oriental Rugs from the Nellie Ballard White Collection and Two Centuries of Japanese Prints.

To close the year we secured from the American Institute for Persian Art and Archaeology an exhibition of very interesting photographs of Persian architecture of types little known before in America and they were exhibited from December 14th until January 21st.

In the Decorative Arts Department, Gallery M4 has been divided by two partitions and used to house a collection of architectural details in memory of Howard Van Doren Shaw. These objects include a shop front from Faversham, Kent, a doorway and iron railing, London, 18th century, an entrance gate, a doorway, a lead cistern and iron lamp bracket from Lower Clapton Road, London, 18th century, and an American doorway.
built in 1819 from a house in Freemansburg, Pennsylvania. Other accessions to this Department include 109 pieces of lace, the bequest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Ayer, 22 pieces of lace from Mrs. Francis Neilson, a large and important collection of shoes from Mrs. J. Ogden Armour, additions to the costume collection from Annette K. Beeman, Mrs. R. B. Murdock, Mrs. Patrick C. Hill, Arthur Heun, Mary Wilmot Price, the Rt. Rev. George Craig Stewart, Mrs. N. S. Solberg, Mrs. S. Herbert Wilkins, Marie Josephine Rozet and Mrs. William Prescott Hunt, Jr. Robert Allerton presented a Chelsea figurine, a Capo-di-Monte tureen, two wallpaper panels, seven pieces of English and French furniture, and a Queen Anne needlework panel. Mrs. John T. Wheeler presented a pair of 17th century English crewel work curtains through the Needlework and Textile Guild and Elizabeth Day McCormick gave a collection of Verre de Nevers (111 pieces) through the Antiquarian Society. Evelyn English presented an early American chair made by Deacon John Whitman.

The most important exhibitions undertaken by this Department during the year consisted in a loan exhibition of Tapestry panels, Italian faience, French enamels, ivories and wood carvings, and metal brocade from the Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson Collection, which occupied six galleries.

In the Art Institute Art School the following members of the faculty were promoted from the rank of Instructor to that of Assistant Professor: Myrtle Merrit French, Edmund Giesbert, Ruth E. Hutchins, Park Phipps. H. F. Reynolds of Holabird & Root, architects, has been appointed to the staff of the Department of Interior Architecture. During the past year exhibits of students' work have been circulated in eight states.

Readers and users of Ryerson and Burnham Libraries increased from 81,789 in 1932 to 82,007 in 1933. Gifts of over 5,000 lantern slides and photographs were re-received. The number of volumes in all libraries of the Art Institute now is 35,754, a net increase of 1,352 volumes for the year.

The Children's Museum received by purchase through the Avery Fund a bronze warrior in high relief cast in Benin, Africa, probably during the 17th century. The Curator has continued her Saturday story hours for children of members on the subjects: "Tales of a Traveller in Italy," and "Travel and Art for Children."

Temporary exhibitions held during the year in addition to A Century of Progress exhibition of Paintings, Sculpture and Prints and the Annual Chicago exhibition include paintings and drawings of Greenland by Rockwell Kent, contemporary French paintings loaned by Joseph Winterbotham through the Robert Hull Fleming Museum, drawings by Walt Disney, paintings by Eugene Berman, paintings by Paul Kleinschmidt lent by Erich Cohn, illustrations for Dostoyevsky's "The Brothers Karamazoff" by Boris Grigoriev.

Three hundred ninety-eight Extension department lectures from January 1, 1933 to January 1, 1934, were given to 89,118 listeners.

Structural changes during the year include replacement of wooden floors in corridors by terrazzo and cement floors in Gallery 50 and on the sides of the main stairs with Tennessee marble, the installation of ventilating fans above skylights and the renovation of the skylight and lighting schemes in Gallery 39. A soda water fountain was added to the Restaurant and thanks to the initiative of Mrs. Walter S. Brewster funds were collected which enabled us to improve the appearance of both the cafeteria and Mather Tea Room. In the cafeteria the walls were covered by mural paintings executed by pupils in the Art Institute Art School.

By the bequest of Reuben R. Donnelley the Art Institute received $10,000, the income of which is to go to a beneficiary during her lifetime. From Miss Elsie K.
White we received an office building, the income of which is to go to her during her lifetime. Florence D. Bartlett has given $10,000 toward maintenance of a Swedish Peasant Cottage already presented to the Art Institute. By the bequest of Esther J. Isaacs, amounting to $9,904.14, the Walter and Esther J. Isaacs Scholarship Fund became available for the art school. The bequest of Mrs. John Alden Carpenter amounting to $5,000 was added to the Joseph Winterbotham Fund. Potter Palmer gave $1,250 and the Misses Catherine and Jessie Colvin $1,000 for the current expenses of the museum. The Tuesday Art and Travel Club added $232.23 to their School Scholarship Fund.

At the time of going to press the Trustees learn with great regret of the death on January 7th of John Warner Norton, M.F.A. (b. 1876), a teacher at the Art Institute school since 1914, a full professor from June 15, 1928 to June 15, 1929. Besides performing these functions with marked ability and lasting influence upon the younger generation of Chicago-taught artists, Mr. Norton was well known as a mural painter of distinction, to whose credit must be placed the series of murals in the Logan Archaeological Museum at Beloit, decorations in the Tavern Club, Board of Trade and Chicago Daily News buildings in Chicago; the Hall of Science at A Century of Progress Exhibition; and elsewhere. In the Art Institute collections he is represented by a water color, an oil painting, "Light and Shadow," for which he received the
W. M. R. French Gold Medal in 1924. He also received the Harris Bronze Medal in 1926 and the Gold Medal of the New York Architectural League in 1931.

The President of A Century of Progress Exposition has announced the reopening of that Exposition on June 1, 1934. The official department of Fine Arts will again be under the direction of the Trustees of the Art Institute.

ARTHUR TAYLOR ALDIS

The Trustees of the Art Institute desire to pay tribute to the memory of Arthur T. Aldis and record permanently an appreciation of his service as our fellow Trustee.

During the seventeen years that Mr. Aldis acted as Trustee, he always retained the enthusiasm of a young man. His most valuable contribution to the Art Institute was his vital interest in and his active encouragement of the best in contemporary art. With deep reverence for the works of the masters, he, nevertheless always looked with open mind upon the new and unknown. As a member of the Committee on Painting and Sculpture, he was often the first to value the work of a young artist; time has proved the soundness of his judgment.

Mr. Aldis' interest in the theatre was second only to his interest in painting. There also his influence was felt on the side of the new and the experimental. It was fitting that he should serve on the Committee on the Goodman Theatre and School of Dramatic Art. To this department he gave freely of his time, energy and good judgment.

The work of the Friends of American Art was especially dear to him because he appreciated the value of its purpose. In his will he requested that part of the income from the fund he established be used to continue his annual contribution to that organization.

A true aristocrat of great personal dignity and fine artistic discrimination, Mr. Aldis' pleasure was to encourage merit wherever found. Primarily we honor him for his distinguished appreciation of the arts, yet considering the broad scope of his activities, he will always be remembered as a "connoisseur of all the amenities of life."

I do hereby give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois Corporation, . . . . (amounts or objects bequeathed or list of same) for such uses consistent with the purposes of the aforesaid corporation as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I direct that my executors, out of the remainder of my estate, shall set aside stocks, bonds and notes, or other securities of the value estimated by them to be sufficient to make the sum of . . . . dollars, which I hereby give and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, for uses consistent with its purposes, as the trustees thereof shall decide.

I give, devise and bequeath to The Art Institute of Chicago, a corporation of the State of Illinois, . . . . dollars to be held and applied by the trustees thereof for the uses and purposes of that institution.

I give, devise and bequeath to the said The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, the lands, tenements and hereditaments aforesaid, the leases and all my interest therein and in the covenants therein contained and in the rents to accrue thereunder, and also the reversions in fee in the lands above described.

I direct that my executors shall from my general estate pay over in convenient installments to the trustees of The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, such amounts as shall equal . . . . . . dollars per annum for the period from the date of my death until the . . . . day of . . . . . . 19 . . . which amounts I give and bequeath to the aforesaid The Art Institute of Chicago to be received and applied by its Trustees.

The Trustees are deeply grateful to those who have already made gifts and bequests, and earnestly solicit all those wishing to aid and encourage The Art Institute in the great work which it is accomplishing with comparatively small resources, either to give or bequeath to it money or works of art of that high degree of excellence which is worthy of a great museum.
