MINI-TOUR
Connecting the Lichtenstein Dots

A little-known fact about Lichtenstein is that throughout his decades-long career he explored just about every art historical style out there—from Impressionism to Abstract Expressionism, from Native American motifs to Art Deco design—always applying his own unmistakable language to the original source or genre. The Art Institute is lucky enough to have a rich and diverse permanent collection that spans Lichtenstein’s wide-ranging inspirations and influences. Use this guide to connect the dots between Lichtenstein’s unique interpretations and works throughout the museum’s vast collection.

Please note that this is an archived mini-tour. Some works may no longer be on view or may have been moved to a different gallery.
The exhibition is organized by the Art Institute of Chicago and Tate Modern, London.

Global Sponsor: Bank of America

Major funding is provided by the Bette and Neison Harris Exhibitions Fund.

Additional support provided by the Terra Foundation for American Art and the Henry Luce Foundation. Annual support provided by the Exhibitions Trust: Goldman Sachs, Kenneth and Anne Griffin, Thomas and Margot Pritzker, the Earl and Brenda Shapiro Foundation, the Trott Family Foundation, and the Woman’s Board of the Art Institute of Chicago. The exhibition in Chicago and Washington is supported by an indemnity from the Federal Council on the Arts and Humanities.